Khe Sanh Faces New Threat: Red Antiaircraft Guns

SAIGON (AP) — American fighter-bombers smashed 165 North Vietnamese trucks carrying military supplies to the Communists' troops along the demilitarized zone in the last two days, the U.S. Command announced today.

South of the DMZ, U.S. military sources said the North Vietnamese have moved highly mobile 37mm antiaircraft guns up to the U.S. Marine fortress at Khe Sanh for the first time in the war, raising a serious new threat to the besieged base's aerial lifeline.

U.S. headquarters also reported that ground action in South Vietnam "continued at an accelerated pace" Thursday, and "significant contacts with enemy forces were reported in all corps tactical zones." Communiques reported American, South Vietnamese and Korean troops kill 330 of the many in scattered fighting.

Air Force pilots also attacked several fuel storage depots north of the Mu Gia pass and reported their 750-pound bombs touched off four secondary explosions and two huge fires, with smoke rising 2,000 feet.

In all, U.S. pilots flew 108 missions over North Vietnam Thursday. Other key targets included three airfields, and eight railroad yards and sidings along the vital northeast and northwest railroad lines to Communist China. One of the strikes was within 24 miles of the Chinese border.

The debut of the Communists' 37mm antiaircraft gun around Khe Sanh was termed serious by one U.S. officer who said: "It's a very good weapon. We (Continued on Page 2)

Action Taken On Tax Protests

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Internal Revenue Service has ordered its tax collection offices to attach the paychecks of persons who refuse to pay the 10 per cent federal tax on their telephone bills as a protest against the Vietnam war.

A survey of large telephone companies indicated that about 3,000 persons have adopted this technique. The phone companies do not cut off service to the protesters but simply notify IRS offices that the tax is unpaid.

An IRS spokesman said that the amounts are small—usually less than a dollar on each phone bill—but that collection must be made. The Washington office therefore has directed district and local collectors to attach the pay or file liens.

Nixon Cranks Up Campaign Drive After Rocky Balks

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Months sooner than he had figured, Richard M. Nixon is starting to make the switch from jockeying for the Republican nomination to the much bigger goal of winning the presidency.

Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller's announcement Thursday removing himself from consideration for the nomination left Nixon without a serious rival.

He immediately began revising his political timetable and said visits to a number of states that had to take low priority while he was still seriously challenged in primaries will be possible much sooner.

Does this mean he is starting now his campaign for the Nov. 7 election, he was asked.

"Yes," Nixon said in an interview in Milwaukee Thursday night.

The GOP and the press were primed Thursday to hear Rockefeller announce he had finally heard the call and was going to shoot for the GOP nomination. They were stunned to hear him say just the opposite.

He summed it up in his first sentence: "I have decided today to reiterate unequivocally that I am not a candidate campaigning, directly or indirectly, for the presidency of the United States."

Lest anyone looked for hidden meanings, he warned, "I mean, and I shall abide by, precisely what I say."

While emphasizing that he will not take the nomination for granted, Nixon said the Rockefeller withdrawal means there will be major changes in where he goes and whom he sees.

In the next two months, Nixon said, he will try to confer with each of the 26 Republican governors—including Rockefeller—and "as many senators and congressmen and other party leaders as I can."

Also campaigning in Wisconsin Thursday Democratic contender Eugene J. McCarthy made a bid for Republican support.

There is little difference between the thinking of Nixon and President Johnson on the matter of war policy, the Minnesota senator said.

"The withdrawal of Gov. Rockefeller from the contest for the Republican nomination leaves Wisconsin Republicans with only one alternative to the present policies of mounting conflict in Vietnam," he said.

"Only by asking for a ballot in the Democratic primary and voting for my candidacy can they give the American people an alternative choice in November."

Pueblo Talks Drag on Without Sign of Success

WASHINGTON (AP) — Two months after North Korea's Jan. 23 seizure of the U.S. intelligence ship Pueblo, the brink-of-war fever it generated has simmered down to a lingering diplomatic crisis.

American officials, who chose diplomacy instead of force, say they foresee no release of the vessel and her 82 surviving crewmen any time soon.

While two U.S. aircraft carriers stand by well off the Korean coast in the Sea of Japan, the antagonists now thrust and parry through spokesmen in secrecy-cloaked talks at Panmunjom.

North Korea demands a U.S. confession of criminal espionage inside Korean territorial waters and an apology for "hostile acts."

President Johnson has received a letter purportedly signed by the Pueblo's 82 surviving crewmen, saying a Washington apology is needed before our repatriation can be realized.

Now other letters in the same vein from individual crewmen are being received by their families.

The letters have been carrying the Communist charge that the Pueblo intruded within 7.6 miles of North Korean shores, inside the Reds' claimed 12-mile territorial limit. The U.S. government says it has positive electronic tracking proof that the ship was seized in international waters, 15.4 miles from the nearest Korean land.

Washington's reply to Pyongyang has been: Return the crewmen and if their testimony shows any American violation of the U.S. government will take the appropriate action.

Representatives of the two sides met again Thursday at Panmunjom, this time for an hour. It was the 12th confrontation on the Pueblo at the Korean truce site and the State Department's report was as before: "No progress."

State Department authorities expect more talk, probably lots more, before North Korea seriously considers freeing the prisoners. They figure the Communists will try first to extract maximum propaganda mileage and concessions from the incident.

PRAGUE (AP) — President Antonin Novotny gave up his fight for political survival today and resigned after the Czechoslovak Communist party's new anti-Stalinist leaders received the Kremlin's assurance that it would not interfere with their liberalization drive.

Novotny, a hard-line Communist, sent his letter of abdication to the National Assembly's presidium which immediately accepted it. The party presidium did likewise earlier today.

Novotny gave up his fight to hold on to the largely ceremonial presidency less than 48 hours after Deputy Premier Oldrich Cernik returned from Moscow.

Premier Alexei Kosygin and other top Soviet officials told him they would not interfere in Czechoslovakia's liberal new course of "socialist democratization."

Novotny's downfall began last January, when Alexander Dubcek replaced him as leader of the Czechoslovak Communist party, the position of real power.

In an attempt at a face-saving gesture, CTK, the official news service, said he now would retire from public life because of the "state of his health."

Novotny, 63, was named party leader in 1953 and president in 1957. His term as chief of state was to have ended next year.

In addition to winning the Bowsher trophy, Palmer has been named to the first team All - Scioto Valley Conference team, first team All-District Class A basketball team, and honorable mention All-State. He also received the "top offensive player" award for a Westfall player presented by sportscaster Ed Johnson.

THE Bowsher award was named in memory of a fine Circleville High School athlete who gave his life while fighting for his country in the European theater of War during World War II.

Bowsher, an all-around athlete, lettered in football, basketball, boxing and track at Circleville and was typified by his coaches as an outstanding

U.S. Ready To Return Iwo Jima

WASHINGTON (AP) — Iwo Jima, won at the cost of some 5,000 American lives 23 years ago, will be peacefully transferred back to Japanese rule within the next few weeks.

State Department officials said Thursday the United States will sign an agreement by late March or early April turning over to Japan administration of the historic World War II battle site and 28 other desolate Pacific islands of the Bonin-Volcano groups.

Some 22,000 Japanese died in a vain effort in February and March of 1945 to hold the strategically important, eight-square-mile island. The over-all U.S. and Japanese casualty toll made it one of the bloodiest battles of the war.

The transfer will mean hauling down the American flag from Mt. Suribachi, where raising of the stars and stripes by Marines was recorded in one of history's most famous combat photographs. The 546-foot volcano will instead carry a bronze plaque commemorating the flag-raising.

Priorities Set For Spending Cuts if Needed

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Ohio may be forced to reduce its spending and reinstate the "austerity program of 1963" if a surtax is adopted along with federal budget cuts, State Finance Director Richard L. Krabach warned Thursday.

"We must prepare to tighten our belts because, if the economy nationally has a downward turn, tax income will reduce in Ohio. In that eventuality, all departments may face an across the board cut," Krabach said.

"I'm not a bit pessimistic," Krabach added. "But we must be ready to act. It will take some painful steps to do it." He estimated a 10 per cent federal surtax would take $535 million "out of our economy."

Krabach made his remarks after Gov. James A. Rhodes called a cabinet meeting to consider the possible impact of federal budget cuts and the proposed surtax.

The finance director noted that when Rhodes first took office in 1963, about 5,000 state employees were fired and 9.1 per cent spending cut ordered to wipe out an inherited deficit and to balance the state budget.

Krabach said Thursday that each state department has been directed to list priorities for reductions having the least impact on essential services, although he explained that nothing might have to be done for about 90 days, if then. Cuts could affect such programs as welfare, mental hygiene, highway safety and education, he said.

Krabach said that Ohio's efforts to expand foreign trade would be continued because exports help to ease this country's balance of payments deficit. He said that most of the expense of stimulating Ohio exports is shouldered by businessmen and industry.

Corregidor Is Scene Of Mutiny

MANILA (AP) — President Ferdinand E. Marcos ordered an investigation today of a mutiny at a special forces training camp on the island of Corregidor that newspapers claimed resulted in the massacre of 60 trainees. A presidential palace statement acknowledged three deaths.

Quoting a "ranking" congressman, the Daily Mirror said the 60 men "were mowed down while unarmed and made to line up in a military parade ground formation to await planes that supposedly would take them out of Corregidor."

A report by the general staff to Marcos said three trainees were killed and two officers wounded as a result of a "simple mutiny and desertion by trainees who had been kept under sustained adverse and severe jungle conditions."

The generals said there had been a plot to liquidate the commanding officer of the camp on grim Corregidor Island, the scene of the famed World War II battle in the mouth of Manila Bay.

Wisconsin Students Cheer McCarthy, Hiss Freeman

MILWAUKEE, Wis. (AP) — Sen. Eugene J. McCarthy and Secretary of Agriculture Orville Freeman both addressed students audiences in Wisconsin Thursday. McCarthy drew cheers. Freeman, campaigning on behalf of President Johnson, heard hisses.

Freeman cut short a prepared speech on U.S. achievements in food production and distribution when he was unable to make himself heard above the hisses from a University of Wisconsin audience in Madison.

McCarthy, a Democratic presidential candidate, emphasized a youth and student theme in an appearance at Marquette University in Milwaukee where he was greeted with a handclapping, standing ovation and chants of "We Want Gene!"

Freeman halted his speech after telling an overflow crowd of some 700 persons it was "too much of a burden to attempt to Speak over the bedlam" created by antiwar students. Many shouted "napalm" and "atrocities" during the talk.

Before Freeman left the stage, one crowd stood up and told him: "I'm extremely embarrassed for my university and I'd like to apologize." About half the students stood and applauded her remark.

The former Minnesota governor was booed from the time he entered the auditorium. A number of students carried placards calling for the election of McCarthy who is opposing Johnson in Wisconsin's April 2 primary.

Local Man Sent to Lima Institute

John Fyffe, Circleville, found guilty of attempted carnal knowledge of a female child under 16, has been sent to Lima Institute for the Criminally Insane.

Judge William Ammer today in Common Pleas Court sentenced Fyffe to six months in the county jail. He then suspended the sentence and ordered Fyffe to Lima.

He based his action on reports by psychiatrists stating that Fyffe, who has been arrested from 25 to 30 times for various misdemeanors, is a psychopathic offender.

Fyffe's attorney, Steve Guster of Ashville, today asked the court to either place Fyffe on probation and permit him to receive private psychiatric care or sentence him to the county jail and allow him to be treated privately from there.

Fyffe and two other local men were implicated in having sexual relations with a young girl last summer.

William Jackson was cleared on the charges of a legal technicality. Arthur W. Crosby was found guilty and has served his term in the county jail.

THE PRODUCTS of their nimble fingers will be auctioned April 20 at the annual Tri-County Relief Sale in Morgantown, Pa.

About 200 quilts will be auctioned, all made by Mennonite women who spent several hours each month through the winter at a quilting circle. Last year, quilts at the auction averaged $65 each, so the women are expecting to raise about $13,000 from their quilts for relief work.

The quilts are made entirely by hand, with good stitchers going as fast as 1,200 stitches an hour.

Generally a circle member designs and makes the top of the quilt. "That takes a good while," said a quilter in the circle at the home of Miss Margaret Rohrer Ronks. "It's tedious, but it's fun."

Of the designs, said another, "Well, it all depends on what we have to work with. We get scraps from factories, we save dress scraps, pieces that otherwise might have gone in the garbage."

School Men Attend OASA Seminar

Three local school administrators attended an Ohio Assn. of School Administrators seminar in Columbus Thursday.

Making the trip for the session were George D. McDowell, superintendent of county schools; Judson Lanman, executive head of Westfall District and John Henn, executive head of Logan Elm District.

On the agenda were discussions of the law and the school board, the role of supervisor, mistakes administrators make and man in the middle, the principal.

Field reports say seven of the 37mm guns around Khe Sanh are believed to have been destroyed, and no planes have been lost to the new anti-aircraft weapon yet. But the reports say the guns have opened fire on C130 cargo planes making supply drops and on jet fighter-bombers escorting the cargo carriers.

U. S. sources said the 37mm guns have an effective range of 8,000 to 10,000 feet and pack "a lot more punch" than the 50-caliber machine guns the North Vietnamese have been using against Khe Sanh's only supply route.

With an effective range of about 4,500 feet, the machine guns and other automatic weapons have knocked down three Marine jet bombers, two cargo planes and several helicopters. One of the cargo planes carried 49 persons; all were killed.

The 37mm guns also are a threat to U.S. fighter-bombers that have been flying an average of 200 strikes a day against the estimated 20,000 North Vietnamese troops besieging Khe Sanh.

North Vietnamese forces broke the back of the French resistance at Dien Bien Phu in 1954 after 37mm guns shot down plane after plane trying to parachute supplies to that beleaguered fortress or bombing in support of the French garrison.

Howard U Group Issues 4 Demands

WASHINGTON (AP) — Rebellious students in their third day as rulers of the administration building at Howard University say the university president must quit before they'll come out.

At the first serious negotiations toward ending the dispute Thursday, a delegation of five students said President James M. Nabrit Jr. must go, and with him two other top university officials.

The student leaders and the five representatives of the administration who heard the demands—substantially escalated since the sit-in began Tuesday—said their might be a follow-up session today.

Classes at the predominantly Negro institution—nominally private but dependent for more than half its funds on the federal government—were suspended Wednesday by university officials. The administration said dormitories must be emptied by midnight tonight.

Sophomore Robert Malson said the demands presented by the students at the confrontation included:

—Removal of Nabrit, Dr. Stanton L. Wormley, academic vice president, and Dean Frank M. Snowden.

—Prompt resumption of classes, to be followed by establishment of more courses aimed at making Howard a "black-oriented" university.

—Dropping of charges against 39 students facing disciplinary action for mounting the stage and disrupting Charter Day ceremonies March 1.

—A guarantee there will be no retaliation against those camping in the administration building.

Milk Order May Be Amended

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—The U.S. Department of Agriculture reported today it has recommended amending the Greater Cincinnati federal milk marketing order covering mainly Cincinnati, Hamilton, Middletown, Norwood and Franklin in Ohio, and Covington, Newport and Cynthia in Kentucky.

The department's consumer and marketing service officials said the recommended decision is based on public hearings held in Cincinnati last August at the request of dairy farmers.

The decision proposes establishment of new pool plant standards for distributing and supply plants in order to have their milk pooled and priced under the order. Distributing plants pooled would be those selling on routes at least 50 per cent of their milk receipts approved for fluid use, and selling 15 per cent of fluid disposition on in-area routes each month.

Police Clear Check Forgery

Circleville Patroman Wesley Barton has filed a warrant for the arrest of Jerry Lee Jackson for check forgery.

Barton has charged Jackson with the forging of a check in the amount of $350 on the account of Mr. and Mrs. Elmon Richards.

He was arrested in Kansas City, Kan., March 17, by the FBI for transportation of interstate stolen motor vehicle.

Police believe that Jackson broke into the Richards car in St. Louis, Mo., Nov. 21, 1967, stealing $1,000 in property and nine blank checks.

TWELVE hours later a check was forged and cashed at the Circleville First National Bank. Handwriting samples obtained from Jackson indicate he is the person who forged the check, according to Barton's report.

Chief Robert Temple said today he would discuss the disposition of the case with Prosecuting Attorney Robert Huffer. He noted that Jackson would probably not be returned until the FBI case was completed.

Tanjung said non-Chinese were surprised by the turnout because in recent months the movement has been away from such mass demonstrations and the accent has been on advancing production.

Thousands of red flags, endless columns of workers, youth, Red Guard detachments and trucks loaded with soldiers paraded.

The Army chemical and biological test area is located about 50 miles southwest of Salt Lake City.

Moss said the Army on March 13 conducted nerve gas tests at Dugway. Sheep were found dead the next day within 35 miles downwind from the tests.

State Agriculture Commissioner David R. Waldron said he and other representatives of state and federal agencies will meet today in emergency session with Gov. Calvin L. Rampton at the state Capitol.

Waldron is seeking help from federal officials in determining whether humans might be susceptible to whatever killed the sheep.

U.S. Planes

Field reports say seven of the 37mm guns around Khe Sanh are believed to have been destroyed, and no planes have been lost to the new anti-aircraft weapon yet. But the reports say the guns have opened fire on C130 cargo planes making supply drops and on jet fighter-bombers escorting the cargo carriers.

U. S. sources said the 37mm guns have an effective range of 8,000 to 10,000 feet and pack "a lot more punch" than the 50-caliber machine guns the North Vietnamese have been using against Khe Sanh's only supply route.

With an effective range of about 4,500 feet, the machine guns and other automatic weapons have knocked down three Marine jet bombers, two cargo planes and several helicopters. One of the cargo planes carried 49 persons; all were killed.

The 37mm guns also are a threat to U.S. fighter-bombers that have been flying an average of 200 strikes a day against the estimated 20,000 North Vietnamese troops besieging Khe Sanh.

North Vietnamese forces broke the back of the French resistance at Dien Bien Phu in 1954 after 37mm guns shot down plane after plane trying to parachute supplies to that beleaguered fortress or bombing in support of the French garrison.

Police Clear Check Forgery

Circleville Patroman Wesley Barton has filed a warrant for the arrest of Jerry Lee Jackson for check forgery.

Barton has charged Jackson with the forging of a check in the amount of $350 on the account of Mr. and Mrs. Elmon Richards.

He was arrested in Kansas City, Kan., March 17, by the FBI for transportation of interstate stolen motor vehicle.

Police believe that Jackson broke into the Richards car in St. Louis, Mo., Nov. 21, 1967, stealing $1,000 in property and nine blank checks.

Howard U Group Issues 4 Demands

WASHINGTON (AP) — Rebellious students in their third day as rulers of the administration building at Howard University say the university president must quit before they'll come out.

At the first serious negotiations toward ending the dispute Thursday, a delegation of five students said President James M. Nabrit Jr. must go, and with him two other top university officials.

The student leaders and the five representatives of the administration who heard the demands—substantially escalated since the sit-in began Tuesday—said they might be a follow-up session today.

Classes at the predominantly Negro institution—nominally private but dependent for more than half its funds on the federal government—were suspended Wednesday by university officials. The administration said dormitories must be emptied by midnight tonight.

Sophomore Robert Malsen said the demands presented by the students at the confrontation included:

—Removal of Nabrit, Dr. Stanton L. Wormley, academic vice president, and Dean Frank M. Snowden.

—Prompt resumption of classes, to be followed by establishment of more courses aimed at making Howard a "black-oriented university."

—Dropping of charges against 39 students facing disciplinary action for mounting the stage and disrupting Charter Day ceremonies March 1.

—A guarantee there will be no retaliation against those camping in the administration building.

Milk Order

May Be Amended

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—The U.S. Department of Agriculture reported today it has recommended amending the Greater Cincinnati federal milk marketing order covering mainly Cincinnati, Hamilton, Middletown, Norwood and Franklin in Ohio, and Covington, Newport and Cynthia in Kentucky.

The department's consumer and marketing service officials said the recommended decision is based on public hearings held in Cincinnati last August at the request of dairy farmers.

The decision proposes establishment of new pool plant standards for distributing and supply plants in order to have their milk pooled and priced under the order. Distributing plants pooled would be those selling on routes at least 50 per cent of their milk receipts approved for fluid use, and selling 15 per cent of fluid disposition on in-area routes each month.

Police believe that Jackson broke into the Richards car in St. Louis, Mo., Nov. 21, 1967, stealing $1,000 in property and nine blank checks.

TWELVE hours later a check was forged and cashed at the Circleville First National Bank. Handwriting samples obtained from Jackson indicate he is the person who forged the check, according to Barton's report.

Chief Robert Temple said today he would discuss the disposition of the case with Prosecuting Attorney Robert Huffer. He noted that Jackson would probably not be returned until the FBI case was completed.

Red Chinese

Protest against Mao's Enemies

BELGRADE, Yugoslavia (AP) — Tens of thousands of Chinese turned out in Peking today to demonstrate against the foes of Mao Tse-tung. Tanjug news agency reported from Red China's capital.

Tanjung said the turnout resembled the tumultuous days when the Communist party chairman's cultural revolution was at its height.

Tanjung said non-Chinese were surprised by the turnout because in recent months the movement has been away from such mass demonstrations and the accent has been on advancing production.

Thousands of red flags, endless columns of workers, youth, Red Guard detachments and trucks loaded with soldiers paraded.

City Recovers from Bridge Collapse

By JAMES PHILLIPS
Associated Press Writer
PT. PLEASANT, W. Va. (AP)—Tow boats strain to push heavy trains of barges against the swift current of the muddy Ohio River as they pass this drowsy river town basking in the warm spring sun.

The boatmen, long accustomed to gliding by such small towns, continue about their jobs, never looking up or giving a thought to the horrible disaster of more than three months ago.

In town, the residents have nearly recovered from the shock of that Friday night when the Silver Bridge collapsed.

Along the main street business district, there are plenty of empty parking spaces.

Only a few shoppers leisurely stroll down the sidewalks. One department store owner says business "is not much better; not much worse, except for restaurant and gasoline station owners."

The throaty rumble of heavy trucks no longer echoes through the quiet community and traffic jams at stop lights are rare.

Through trucks and travellers now cross the Ohio River at Huntington or Parkersburg.

Concrete piers jutting above the muddy Ohio and the tangle of rusted steel beams in a barren field south of town where the bridge is being reconstructed in airline crash fashion are the mute remnants of the disaster.

The serene picture is a far cry from that fateful night on Dec. 15 when hundreds of persons crowded the downtown area attempting to set up rescue operations. Others lined the banks of the river to view the disaster scene illuminated by the powerful beams of riverboats tied up along shore.

"I don't think anything about crossing a bridge now," said one attractive young secretary. "It doesn't bother me anymore."

Down by the ferry landings, men park their cars in long lines and gather in small groups to talk while waiting to be taken across the river.

The ferry service was started to provide a token replacement for the bridge, and most of the passengers think it's too slow. The alternative is a 64-mile drive round-trip from Gallipolis, Ohio, upriver to the nearest bridge and back to Pt. Pleasant.

The lone ferry in operation carries a maximum of 15 cars. A smaller 8-car ferry was withdrawn from service after the landing provided by the state proved unsuitable.

Attorney John Epling, spokesman for the ferry operator, said another 15-car ferry is being built. He predicts that within 60 days the ferry service will be able to haul about 4,000 cars daily across the river. Traffic experts said between 8,000 and 9,000 vehicles crossed the Silver Bridge every day.

Plans for a new bridge are underway, but the proposed site just below the mouth of the Kanawha River has met with opposition from river interests.

Tow boat operators fear that concrete piers in the river will pose navigational problems because of the tricky currents where the two rivers join.

JESUS PROMISES TO SEND A COMFORTER.

Scripture—John 14.

By R. H. RAMSEY

THOUGH the 14th chapter of John is but 31 verses long, in it Christ speaks with authority on four of the greatest themes of Christian faith: the revelation of God, Christ's love for His own, the promise of heaven and the sending of a Comforter.

Like nearly all their fellows, the disciples hoped for a military messiah and found it hard to accept One who came, not to save them from political servitude, but from moral and spiritual bondage. Certainly, Christ had denounced evil and uttered wonderful truths. He had healed the sick and afflicted and even raised the dead. But He had not freed them from the yoke of foreign domination.

During the closing months of Christ's earthly ministry, some of the disciples had begun to suspect that all was not well with the Master's movement. He still attracted multitudes, wherever He went, but the rich, the rulers, the religious leaders who had opposed Him from the first still resisted. And the opposition was becoming persecution.

As their suspicions grew, so did their depression. Though they still loved the Master, their faith in Him was beginning to waver. Jesus knew this. And He knew their faith would be undermined even more by His death on the cross. Thus, He not listening or was unable to grasp the profundity of Christ's statements. Jesus rebuked him gently. He had been with them for three years and, despite the evidence of His character, teaching, works and miracles, they still did not recognize Him. He that saw Christ saw the Father. He was not the reincarnation of a former prophet; nor was He a new messenger of the Lord. He was in Himself the Lord.

Because of this, those who believed in Him would be able to do His works—not miracles, but the work of spreading Christ's gospel among mankind.

Because of this all prayers directed to God, but presented in Christ's name, would be answered, insofar as they are in accordance with the will and for the glory of God, so that the Father may be glorified in the Son.

Verses 15, 21 and 24 need to be taken out of context and considered separately because they set forth one of the basic truths of the gospel: the absolute requirement of righteousness to sound Christian faith. "If ye love me, keep my commandments," He that hath my commandments, and keepeth them, he it is that loveth me: and he that loveth me shall be loved of my Father, and I will love him, and will manifest myself to him." "He that loveth me not

"And I will pray the Father, and he shall give you another Comforter, that he may abide with you for ever." — John 14:16.

sought to reassure them, telling them not to let their hearts be troubled any longer, that as they believed in a trusted God, to believe in and trust Him as well.

Switching to the subject of heaven, He told them He was returning to the Father to prepare mansions for His own in His Father's house. But this would not be a final separation, for He would return to gather His own to Himself. They knew where He was going, He told them, and they knew the way He was going, as well.

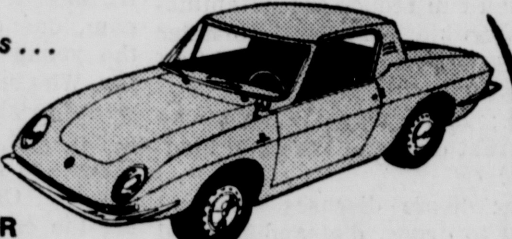

He, Himself, is the Way from this world to the other, the reconciler of things on earth and things in heaven. He is the Truth for the mind, heart and will; in Him God is revealed in holiness and love as the Father. He is Life in the fullest sense, coming from God, which the Father intended man to have and made him capable of enjoying it. He is the perfect revelation of God, and, as such, none come to the Father save through Him.

Throughout the discourse Philip must have been lost in his own thoughts, for his expression of desire to see the Father indicates he was either

During the closing months of Christ's earthly ministry, some of the disciples had begun to suspect that all was not well with the Master's movement. He still attracted multitudes wherever He went, but the rich, the rulers, the religious leaders who had opposed Him from the first still resisted. And the opposition was becoming persecution.

As their suspicions grew, so did their depression. Though they still loved the Master, their faith in Him was beginning to waver. Jesus knew this. And He knew their faith would be undermined even more by His death on the cross. Thus, He sought to reassure them, telling them not to let their hearts be troubled any longer, that as they believed in a trusted God, to believe in and trust Him as well.

Switching to the subject of heaven, He told them He was returning to the Father to prepare mansions for His own in His Father's house. But this would not be a final separation, for He would return to gather His own to Himself. They knew where He was going. He told them, and they knew the way He was going, as well.

He, Himself, is the Way from this world to the other, the reconciler of things on earth and things in heaven. He is the Truth for the mind, heart and will; in Him God is revealed in holiness and love as the Father. He is Life in the fullest sense, coming from God, which the Father intended man to have and made him capable of enjoying it. He is the perfect revelation of God, and, as such, none come to the Father save through Him.

Throughout the discourse Philip must have been lost in his own thoughts, for his expression of desire to see the Father indicates he was either

City Recovers from Bridge Collapse

By JAMES PHILLIPS
Associated Press Writer
PT. PLEASANT, W. Va. (AP) — Tow boats strain to push heavy trains of barges against the swift current of the muddy Ohio River as they pass this drowsy river town basking in the warm spring sun.

The boatmen, long accustomed to gliding by such small towns, continue about their jobs,

Butler County Commissioner Won't Quit

HAMILTON, Ohio (AP)—Butler County commissioner Donald S. Bacon says he will not consider a resolution passed by the county's Republican Executive Committee which asks him to resign.

GOP leaders said their move came as a result of Bacon's arrest March 12 for allegedly beating a motel operator near Columbus.

Bacon, 42, was charged with assault and battery on Walter Davis, operator of the Shady Manor Motel near Scioto Downs racetrack. Bacon who goes to Columbus Municipal Court Tuesday, contends he was attacked when he went to the aid of a girl who had called him.

"I decline to resign," Bacon said Thursday. "And I intend to devote my full time and talents to my county during the next three years."

The GOP resolution, issued late Wednesday, said "elected officials should conduct their private lives in a manner not to bring discredit or bring unfavorable publicity to themselves or to their offices."

ly s'roll down the sidewalks. One department store owner says business "is not much better; not much worse, except for restaurant and gasoline station owners.

The throaty rumble of heavy trucks no longer echoes through the quiet community and traffic jams at stop lights are rare.

Through trucks and travellers now cross the Ohio River at Huntington or Parkersburg. Concrete piers jutting above the muddy Ohio and the tangle of rusted steel beams in a barren field south of town where the bridge is being reconstructed in airline crash fashion are the mute remnants of the disaster.

The serene picture is a far cry from that fateful night on Dec. 15 when hundreds of persons crowded the downtown area attempting to set up rescue operations. Others lined the banks of the river to view the disaster scene illuminated by the powerful beams of riverboats tied up along shore.

"I don't think anything about crossing a bridge now," said one attractive young secretary. "It doesn't bother me anymore."

Down by the ferry landings, men park their cars in long lines and gather in small groups to talk while waiting to be taken across the river.

The ferry service was started to provide a token replacement for the bridge, and most of the passengers think it's too slow. The alternative is a 64 - mile drive round-trip from Gallipolis, Ohio, upriver to the nearest bridge and back to Pt. Pleasant.

The lone ferry in operation carries a maximum of 15 cars. A smaller 8-car ferry was withdrawn from service after the landing provided by the state proved unsuitable.

Attorney John Epling, spokesman for the ferry operator, said another 15-car ferry is being built. He predicts that within 60 days the ferry service will be able to haul about 4,000 cars daily across the river. Traffic experts said between 8,000 and 9,000 vehicles crossed the Silver Bridge every day.

Plans for a new bridge are underway, but the proposed site just below the mouth of the Kanawha River has met with opposition from river interests.

Tow boat operators fear that concrete piers in the river will pose navigational problems because of the tricky currents where the two rivers join.

New Trial Is Sought For Lewis

DELAWARE, Ohio (AP)—A motion for a new trial for Arthur Ben Lewis Jr. was filed Thursday shortly after the Columbus businessman was convicted of first-degree murder in the shotgun slaying of an accountant.

Lewis, 40, was found guilty by a jury of seven men and five women who recommended mercy.

His new trial motion will be heard March 29 in Delaware County Common Pleas Court. Should the motion be overruled, Lewis will be sentenced the same day to a mandatory term of life in prison.

Lewis was convicted of slaying Paul Radcliffe, 53, Worthington, whose body was found last July 19 behind an abandoned building next to the Olen-tangy River in Delaware County.

The defense claimed that Lewis had been in financial trouble and killed Radcliffe after the accountant learned of his money problems.

Courage at Dusk

We live longer today! But, thanks to pension plans, bond-a-month savings, retirement income policies, social security, etc., a man can retire—and still cash a check.

Years ago couples had a harder struggle to prepare for the later years. The security they sought was spiritual as well as material. And even as they toiled to earn and save... they worshipped God... they trained their children in the faith... they relied on their Bibles, their prayers, and their beliefs.

But when dusk came, they possessed a kind of courage that no check will provide. Times haven't changed. To possess that kind of courage in the later years, a couple must begin in the early years to seek and serve God in the life of the Church.

New Trial Is Sought For Lewis

DELAWARE, Ohio (AP)—motion for a new trial Arthur Ben Lewis Jr. was filed Thursday shortly after the (umbus businessman was convicted of first-degree murder in the shotgun slaying of

Lewis, 40, was found guilty by a jury of seven men and five women who recommended mercy.

His new trial motion will be heard March 29 in Delaware County Common Pleas Court. Should the motion be granted, Lewis will be sentenced the same day to a mandatory term of life in prison.

Lewis was convicted of slaying Paul Radcliffe, 53, Wilmington, whose body was found last July 19 behind an abandoned building next to the Otangy River in Delaware County.

The defense claimed Lewis had been in financial trouble and killed Radcl after the accountant learned his money problems.

We live longer today! But, thanks to pension plans, bond-a-month savings, retirement income policies, social security, etc., a man can retire—and still cash a check.

Years ago couples had a harder struggle to prepare for the later years. The security they sought was spiritual as well as material. And even as they toiled to earn and save... they worshipped God... they trained their children in the faith... they relied on their Bibles, their prayers, and their beliefs.

But when dusk came, they possessed a kind of courage that no check will provide.

Times haven't changed. To possess that kind of courage in the later years, a couple must begin in the early years to seek and serve God in the life of the Church.

MRS. JOHN R. TERRY

Dr. Alvarez Addresses Pickaway County Nurses

Pickaway County Registered Nurses Assn. met recently for its March meeting in the home of Mrs. Al Thomas, 415 Wood Lane.

Dr. Carlos Alvarez was guest speaker for the evening. His topic was "Pre-operative and Post-operative Care of the Surgical Patient." He indicated certain periods of time, from many years to a few minutes or hours, may be called the pre-operative period. Receiving an accurate history of the patient's condition, along with a physical examination, laboratory work and necessary X-rays, gives the surgeon a more complete picture for his diagnosis. He further mentioned certain risks present when surgery is indicated. These risks are in varying degrees and some can be eliminated if surgery is not of an emergency nature.

After the talk by Dr. Alvarez, a discussion period was held. He related to the group a few methods being practiced in Africa at the present time, ancient rituals that occasionally work satisfactorily.

The business meeting was conducted by Mrs. James Fausnaugh, president. Committee reports were read. Members volunteered for the Well-Child Clinic to be held April 10. The finance committee reported a bake sale would be held, Saturday, March 30, at Kochheiser's Hardware from 8:30 a. m. until noon. Members were asked to have their baked goods available by 8:30 a. m., and if desired a pick-up would be made by contacting Mrs. Dale Minor or Mrs. Gladys Robinson.

The organization passed a resolution to change the name to Pickaway County Registered Nurses Assn.

The student nurse committee reported that the organization will sponsor a poster contest for the "National Future Nurses Club's Day," May 17. Cash prizes will be awarded and further information can be obtained by calling Mrs. Charles Wellman.

On April 24, the Teays Valley Future Nurses Club will host an area-wide meeting, 7 p. m. at the Trinity Lutheran Church in Circleville. The program will include a Navy nurse, a stewardess and a pharmacist, to discuss their part in the nursing field. All members of the Future Nurses Clubs in the area are invited.

It was announced that any registered nurse who wishes to help with the newly formed Cancer Clinic may call Mrs. David Hoffman, as help is needed at this time.

Mrs. Fausnaugh announced the nominating committee for officers for 1968-69 are Mrs. Robert Smith, Mrs. Jack Good, and Mrs. William Fraas.

Mrs. Thomas, assisted by Mrs. Donald Crist and Mrs. William Clifton, served refreshments to the 23 members and guest.

The April meeting will be held in the home of Mrs. Ernest Martin, Route 3, Bell Station Road. Co-hostesses will be Mrs. Jack Good and Mrs. Virgil Anderson. Panel discussion on "The Diabetic" will be held with Dr. F. W. Anderson, Dr. J. M. Hedges and Dr. F. R. Moore as the panel members. Questions are to be prepared by the organization members. The meeting will begin 7:30 p. m. and will be the time of this meeting only.

MRS. JOHN R. TERRY

Dr. Alvarez Addresses Pickaway County Nurses

Pickaway County Registered Nurses Assn. met recently for its March meeting in the home of Mrs. Al Thomas, 415 Wood Lane.

Dr. Carlos Alvarez was guest speaker for the evening. His topic was "Pre-operative and Post-operative Care of the Surgical Patient." He indicated certain periods of time, from many years to a few minutes or hours, may be called the pre-operative period. Receiving an accurate history of the patient's condition, along with a physical examination, laboratory work and necessary X-rays, gives the surgeon a more complete picture for his diagnosis. He further mentioned certain risks present when surgery is indicated. These risks are in varying degrees and some can be eliminated if surgery is not of an emergency nature.

Dr. Alvarez listed the various hospital orders given to a patient before surgery, stating their purposes.

Following the surgery, or the post-operative period, a different attention must be given to a patient. From leaving the operating room the patient enters a recovery room where he stays until fully awake and is ready for his hospital room.

Ambulation and deep breathing are important factors for the recovering of the surgical patient. Replacing necessary fluids to the body as well as keeping an accurate record of the out-going fluids, enables the surgeon to hasten complete recovery.

After the talk by Dr. Alvarez, a discussion period was held. He related to the group a few methods practiced in Africa at the present time, ancient rituals that occasionally work satisfactorily.

The business meeting was conducted by Mrs. James Fausnaugh, president. Committee reports were read. Members volunteered for the Well-Child Clinic to be held April 10. Senate Rejects Amendment To Ethics Bill

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Senate has rejected an ethics committee proposal aimed at preventing another Bobby Baker-style scandal.

By a 43-37 vote, it approved Thursday an amendment to the committee's proposed code of conduct that would exempt top senatorial assistants from a ban on handling campaign funds.

Ironically, it was the 1964 scandal involving Robert G. Baker—the one-time aide to Senate Democrats who was accused of misusing campaign funds—that led to creation of the ethics panel and ultimately to its recommendations.

The committee had urged that all Senate aides be barred from handling such political funds. The amendment by Sen. Clinton P. Anderson, D-N.M., exempts those aides paid $10,000 or more who are specifically designated by their senator-bosses in a written notice to the senate secretary.

Senate Democratic Leader Mike Mansfield, after obtaining an agreement to limit future debate to one hour per senator, expressed hope for a final vote on the ethics plan today.

A main provision would require senators to disclose publicly contributions and fees for lectures, writings and the like exceeding $500.

They also would have to file with the Senate complete details of their personal financial affairs. But this information would remain in sealed envelopes, to be opened only in the event of an ethics committee probe.

The Senate also overruled the committee, on a 41-40 vote, in approving an amendment barring senators from using private contributions for office expenses.

Youth To Fight Draft for War

NORWALK, Ohio (AP)—Mrs. Cora Cox of Bellevue says if the draft board wants her son, Larry, to return from France, "he will come back."

But Mrs. Cox told a newsman Thursday if her son wants to fight the draft, "I will stand behind him—win or lose."

Cox, 22, is one of four alleged draft dodgers who applied for French residence permits saying they are "working against the war in Vietnam."

"I don't want him to go to Vietnam and get killed," said Mrs. Cox. "I want him to come back here."

Vandals Strike

GLASGOW, Scotland (AP) — Vandals attacked a large canvas tent in the Glasgow City Center Wednesday night, slashing it with knives and razors and scrawling obscene drawings over its surface. The tent houses a government exhibit on the fight against crime and vandalism.

Dear Abby:

By Abigail Van Buren

Husband Living Only in the Past

DEAR ABBY: This is the second marriage for both Elmer and me. My first marriage was an unhappy one and ended in divorce. Elmer's first marriage

(he claims) was happy, but his wife died. Do you think it's right for a husband to have pictures of his first wife all over the place? Every wall in every room of our house is covered with pictures of "her." They go all the way back to their marriage right up to pictures of her wake.

Also, Elmer made me promise that when he dies I will ship his body back to where "she" is buried, so he can be buried next to "her." How should I take all this?

SECOND FIDDLE

DEAR SECOND: It's all right for a man to remember the past, but he doesn't have to live in it. Some wives do not object to having Number One's picture "all over the place," but if you do your feelings should be considered. As for Elmer's wanting to be buried next to "her," tell him to put it in his will and his wishes will be carried out as soon as he is.

DEAR ABBY: I am a 14-year-old girl and my problem is my mother. She won't let me have anyone over to the house unless it's in perfect order because she is afraid the kids might go home and tell their mothers that she is a poor housekeeper.

Abby, this is silly because kids couldn't care less how the house looks. I know that I don't pay any attention to the housekeeping when I'm at someone's house visiting. And even if I did notice that a place was a mess I sure wouldn't come home and tell my mother.

Please put this in your column. My mother never misses it. Thank you.

NO COMPANY

DEAR NO COMPANY: I never give advice to one who hasn't asked for it, but in your case I'll make an exception and address this to your mother: There is nothing more reassuring to a mother than always to know where her daughter is—and with whom. You can insure this feeling by making your daughter's friends welcome in your home anytime. Youngsters take little notice of "housekeeping." In fact, the "perfect" house is not nearly as inviting as the one that looks "lived in."

DEAR ABBY: When my husband and I go to the home of friends for cocktails and dinner, I just hate to end up sitting by somebody else's husband.

When the hostess starts saying, "Alice, you sit over here by Bill, and Joan, you will sit beside Harry," I always say, "I would like to sit by my own husband, thank you." Am I wrong? I would like your opinion.

LIKES MY OWN

DEAR LIKES: I think it is simply a matter of good manners for guest to sit where hostess seats them.

CONFIDENTIAL TO ROBERTO: Any man who can be made "blissfully happy" or "miserably unhappy" by a woman is still "young."

How Weather Looks Today

OHIO WEATHER SUMMARY COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Official Weather bureau summary for Ohio:

Heavy snow warnings were issued for southwest and central Ohio early this morning.

Snow was to continue today and tonight over southern and central Ohio, accumulating to 4 inches or more by this evening or late tonight.

Northern Ohio also will have some light snow during that same period and rain over east central and southeast Ohio will change to a mixture of rain and snow by late today; continuing tonight.

A strong surge of moisture continues to flow into Ohio from the south and this wet trend will continue as another low moves from the Gulf of Mexico to eastern Tennessee by this evening. The snow will lessen in intensity as the low moves well to the east of Ohio Saturday.

Colder temperatures also were expected, with highs today ranging from the 30s to low 40s. Tonight's lows will be from the upper 20s to low 30s and Saturday's highs will be in the 30s.

FORECASTS

OHIO — Heavy snow warnings southwest and central, snow northwest half, rain and snow mixed southeast today and tonight with light snow over the entire state Saturday. Snow accumulating to 4 inches or more by this evening or late tonight southwest and central. A little colder. Lows tonight in the upper 20s to lower 30s.

CENTRAL OHIO — Heavy snow warning. Mixture of rain and snow changing to snow and accumulating to 4 inches or more by this evening or late tonight. A little colder. Lows tonight near 30. Cloudy and cold with light snow Saturday.

NORTHWEST OHIO — Intermittent snow and colder today, tonight and Saturday. Lows tonight in the upper 20s.

SOUTHEAST OHIO — Rain changing to a mixture of rain and snow today and continuing tonight. A little colder. Lows tonight in the 30s. Cloudy and colder with light snow Saturday.

SOUTHWEST OHIO — Heavy snow warning. Mixture of rain

NFO Plans To Kill Hogs And Bury Them at Sabina

WILMINGTON, Ohio (AP)—Southwestern Ohio farmers planned today to slaughter and bury their hogs on a Clinton County farm.

The move is part of a National Farmers' Organization (NFO) drive to withhold hogs from the market in an effort to secure higher prices.

The slaughtering was scheduled at Richard Rolfe's farm near Sabina. NFO spokesmen here said Thursday night they could not say how many hogs would be shot, but estimates ranged as high as 1,000.

The killings could lead to a repeat of the mass burial of several hundred hogs in Sullivan County, Ind., last week. Farmers from some 20 southwestern counties were expected to bring their hogs to Rolfe's farm.

Ed Luttrell of Clinton County NFO, said the farmers "are going to prove to the packers that there is some of the production they are not going to get unless they pay us a fair price."

"All the packers have to do is pay 23 cents a pound for pork and the shooting will stop," Luttrell added.

Thursday, a farmer at Tiffin in northern Ohio said the NFO there is willing to donate 1,000 hogs to the poor if packing plants are willing to process them free of charge.

Leo Buehler, an NFO official, said his offer was good to any packing house in the United States.

Buehler said if he is successful in getting processors to cooperate, he will then ask Seneca County commissioners to provide transportation to get the meat to the poor.

Luttrell said the National NFO

and snow changing to snow and accumulating to 4 inches or more by this evening or later tonight. Colder. Lows tonight near 30. Cloudy and continued cold with occasional light snow Saturday.

OHIO FIVE-DAY FORECAST

Temperatures will average near normal north and below normal central and south Saturday through Wednesday. Highs will be in the upper 40s and low 50s and lows in the upper 20s and low 30s. Cool weekend weather will moderate early next week north and by midweek south. Flurries over the weekend will total about .5

office in Corning, Iowa, "is aware" of the slaughtering plans here, "but this is an action of farmers in southwestern Ohio."

"Everyone of us is against killing the animals," said Vincent Uetrecht Jr., NFO president in Warren County.

"We, too, would like to give the meat to the poor."

Senate Rejects Amendment To Ethics Bill

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Senate has rejected an ethics committee proposal aimed at preventing another Bobby Baker-style scandal.

By a 43-37 vote, it approved Thursday an amendment to the committee's proposed code of conduct that would exempt top senatorial assistants from a ban on handling campaign funds.

Ironically, it was the 1964 scandal involving Robert G. Baker—the one-time aide to Senate Democrats who was accused of misusing campaign funds—that led to creation of the ethics panel and ultimately to its recommendations.

The committee had urged that all Senate aides be barred from handling such political funds. The amendment by Sen. Clinton P. Anderson, D-N.M., exempts those aides paid $10,000 or more who are specifically designated by their senator-bosses in a written notice to the senate secretary.

Senate Democratic Leader Mike Mansfield, after obtaining an agreement to limit future debate to one hour per senator, expressed hope for a final vote on the ethics plan today.

A main provision would require senators to disclose publicly contributions and fees for lectures, writings and the like exceeding $300.

They also would have to file with the Senate complete details of their personal financial affairs. But this information would remain in sealed envelopes, to be opened only in the event of an ethics committee probe.

The Senate also overruled the committee, on a 41-40 vote, in approving an amendment barring senators from using private contributions for office expenses.

Youth To Fight Draft for War

NORWALK, Ohio (AP)—Mrs. Cora Cox of Bellevue says if the draft board wants her son, Larry, to return from France, "he will come back."

But Mrs. Cox told a newsman Thursday if her son wants to fight the draft, "I will stand behind him—win or lose."

Cox, 22, is one of four alleged draft dodgers who applied for French residence permits saying they are "working against the war in Vietnam."

"I don't want him to go to Vietnam and get killed," said Mrs. Cox. "I want him to come back here."

Vandals Strike

GLASGOW, Scotland (AP) — Vandals attacked a large canvas tent in the Glasgow City Center Wednesday night, slashing it with knives and razors and scrawling obscene drawings over its surface. The tent houses a government exhibit on the fight against crime and vandalism.

Dear Abby:

By Abigail Van Buren

Husband Living Only in the Past

DERAR ABBY: This is the second marriage for both Elmer and me. My first marriage was an unhappy one and ended in divorce. Elmer's first marriage

(he claims) was happy, but his wife died. Do you think it's right for a husband to have pictures of his first wife all over the place? Every wall in every room of our house is covered with pictures of "her." They go all the way back to their marriage right up to pictures of her wake.

Also, Elmer made me promise that when he dies I will ship his body back to where "she" is buried, so he can be buried next to "her." How should I take all this?

2nd Pueblo Letter Same As First One

CLEVELAND (AP) — The mother of a Pueblo crewman said Thursday she received a second letter from her son and it was the same as the first.

"I just don't know what to make of all this," said Mrs. Mary Shilling of Auburn Coroners (Geauga County), about 20 miles southeast of here. Her son is John A. Shilling, 21, a Navy communications technician third class.

Mrs. Shilling said the second letter and a photo arrived in an envelope bearing three French stamps, while the first carried a single U.S. air mail stamp. "I can't imagine why John would write the same thing twice," she said. "I sure hope they (the authorities) find out what's going on."

The second letter, like the first, was turned over to the Navy.

A naval spokesman said the two letters would be returned to Mrs. Shilling in about two weeks. He declined to say who had the letters.

Shilling was among the crew of the USS Pueblo, a Navy communications ship captured by the North Koreans Jan. 23.

Both letters contained a photograph of four persons, all apparently in good health. One is Shilling.

Mrs. Shilling has said she could not tell if the first letter was actually written by her son.

Name Warship After Nazi Hero

BONN, Germany (AP) — Despite public criticism of naming West German warships after World War II heroes, a new rocket destroyer will bear the name of one of Hitler's air aces.

The vessel, to be launched at Bath, Maine, on April 13, will be named after Col. Werner Moelders, a fighter pilot who flew with German forces against the Spanish republic in the 1930's and scored 101 kills before he died in a crash in 1941.

LBJ Gets Telegram

GREENVILLE, S.C. (AP) — The 3,500-member student body at Bob Jones University sent a telegram to President Johnson this week, saying: "Vietnam is heavy on the minds of all college students; and while this telegram is not meant to be an endorsement of the administration's handling of the situation, we as a body want to say, 'Thank you' to our boys who have responded to their country's call."

SECOND FIDDLE

DEAR SECOND: It's all right for a man to remember the past, but he doesn't have to live in it. Some wives do not object to having Number One's picture "all over the place," but if you do your feelings should be considered. As for Elmer's wanting to be buried next to "her," tell him to put it in his will and his wishes will be carried out as soon as he is.

DEAR ABBY: I am a 14-year-old girl and my problem is my mother. She won't let me have anyone over to the house unless it's in perfect order because she is afraid the kids might go home and tell their mothers that she is a poor housekeeper.

Abby, this is silly because kids couldn't care less how the house looks. I know that I don't pay any attention to the housekeeping when I'm at someone's house visiting. And even if I did notice that a place was a mess I sure wouldn't come home and tell my mother. Please put this in your column. My mother never misses it. Thank you.

NO COMPANY

DEAR NO COMPANY: I never give advice to one who hasn't asked for it, but in your case I'll make an exception and address this to your mother: There is nothing more reassuring to a mother than always to know where her daughter is—and with whom. You can insure this feeling by making your daughter's friends welcome in your home anytime. Youngsters take little notice of "housekeeping." In fact, the "perfect" house is not nearly as inviting as the one that looks "lived in."

DEAR ABBY: When my husband and I go to the home of friends for cocktails and dinner, I just hate to end up sitting by somebody else's husband.

When the hostess starts saying, "Alice, you sit over here by Bill, and Joan, you will sit beside Harry," I always say, "I would like to sit by my own husband, thank you." Am I wrong? I would like your opinion.

LIKES MY OWN

DEAR LIKES: I think it is simply a matter of good manners for guest to sit where hostess seats them.

CONFIDENTIAL TO ROBERTO: Any man who can be made "blissfully happy" or "miserably unhappy" by a woman is still "young."

How Weather Looks Today

OHIO WEATHER SUMMARY
COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Official Weather bureau summary for Ohio:

Heavy snow warnings were issued for southwest and central Ohio early this morning.

Snow was to continue today and tonight over southern and central Ohio, accumulating to 4 inches or more by this evening or late tonight.

Northern Ohio also will have some light snow during that same period and rain over east central and southeast Ohio will change to a mixture of rain and snow by late today; continuing tonight.

A strong surge of moisture continues to flow into Ohio from the south and this wet trend will continue as another low moves from the Gulf of Mexico to eastern Tennessee by this evening. The snow will lessen in intensity as the low moves well to the east of Ohio Saturday.

Colder temperatures also were expected, with highs today ranging from the 30s to low 40s. Tonight's lows will be from the upper 20s to low 30s and Saturday's highs will be in the 30s.

FORECASTS

OHIO — Heavy snow warnings southwest and central, snow northwest half, rain and snow mixed southeast today and tonight with light snow over the entire state Saturday. SOUTHWEST OHIO — Heavy snow warning. Mixture of rain

NFO Plans To Kill Hogs And Bury Them at Sabina

WILMINGTON, Ohio (AP)—Southwestern Ohio farmers planned today to slaughter and bury their hogs on a Clinton County farm.

The move is part of a National Farmers' Organization (NFO) drive to withhold hogs from the market in an effort to secure higher prices.

The slaughtering was scheduled at Richard Rolfe's farm near Sabina. NFO spokesmen here said Thursday night they could not say how many hogs would be shot, but estimates ranged as high as 1,000.

The killings could lead to a repeat of the mass burial of several hundred hogs in Sullivan County, Ind., last week. Farmers from some 20 southwestern counties were expected to bring their hogs to Rolfe's farm.

Ed Luttrell of Clinton County NFO, said the farmers "are going to prove to the packers that there is some of the production they are not going to get unless they pay us a fair price."

"All the packers have to do is pay 23 cents a pound for pork and the shooting will stop," Luttrell added.

Thursday, a farmer at Tiffin in northern Ohio said the NFO there is willing to donate 1,000 hogs to the poor if packing plants are willing to process them free of charge.

Leo Buehler, an NFO official, said his offer was good to any packing house in the United States.

Buehler said if he is successful in getting processors to cooperate, he will then ask Seneca County commissioners to provide transportation to get the meat to the poor.

Luttrell said the National NFO

office in Corning, Iowa, "is aware" of the slaughtering plans here, "but this is an action of farmers in southwestern Ohio."

"Everyone of us is against killing the animals," said Vincent Uetrecht Jr., NFO president in Warren County.

"We, too, would like to give the meat to the poor."

Uetrecht said, however, that farmers are not allowed to give the pork away.

Seven Senior Girls Are Working in CHS Library

This week the Red and Black would like to honor the senior girls who devote at least one period a day to working in the library. They are Patty Robinson, Nancy Price, Debbie Woods, Velda Gallion, Judy Moore, Sonnie Stone and Keitha Wagner.

Patty Robinson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John D. Robinson, Route 3, is enrolled in the college prep course. Besides working in the library, she is president of Senior SOS and belongs to Curtain Callers, MYF and Girl Scouts. Presently she is involved in the Toastmaster's Leadership Course and the Senior Class Musical. Her interests include music and sewing. She plans to attend several camps this summer and visit some of the beaches along the Atlantic coast. She will start attending Ohio State University in the fall.

Patty said, "working in the library has given me the opportunity to meet people and help them in some small way."

The next librarian to be recognized is Nancy Ann Price, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James W. Price of 550 Garden Parkway.

Nancy is enrolled in the college prep course with American Government being her favorite subject. After graduation she plans to attend the University of Cincinnati and major in nursing.

This is Nancy's first year as a librarian and she commented, "It has been a lot of fun and has given me a great deal of knowledge as to the way a library is run."

Nancy is active in GAA, Drama Club, Canteen Council, Rainbow and the Historical Society.

Another energetic senior librarian is Debbie Woods, who has been a librarian for three years. When asked why she likes library work, she replied, "I love to read and I find my contact with books, magazines, and other reading material through my library work very enjoyable and worthwhile."

Enrolled in the college preparatory course, Debbie is active in EMS, SOS, Curtain Callers, Girl Scouts, Rainbow, Presbyterian WF and the senior class play.

After graduation Debbie plans to attend the University of Kentucky in Lexington and major in history with a degree in secondary education. She has also considered taking a Master's degree in Library Science.

Debbie lives on Route 4 with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John R. Woods and her sister, Amy.

CHS librarian second period is Velda Gallion. She resides with Mr. and Mrs. M. W. Dearth at 139 York St. Velda attends the Nazarene Church and enjoys babysitting, a certain boy, and the record "Words" by the Bee Gees.

Among her duties in the library are checking in and out books, shelving books and magazines, helping students locate their books and checking the library list. This is Velda's first year working in the library. "I thought it would be an opportunity to help other students and gain work experience."

Plans after graduation include attending an airline training center. Velda stated, "I was very thrilled and happy to be one of the senior librarians chosen to be interviewed."

Judy Moore is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Delmore Moore. She resides at 132 N. Pickaway St.

Judy has worked in the library for two years. When asked why she decided to work in the library she stated: "To learn more about library procedures and the work involved in getting a book out to be put on the shelf."

Her interest include bowling, stamp collecting and the Lettermen. She is also active in Senior SOS.

Judy plans to get a secretarial job after graduation.

Sonnie Stone is another one of our senior librarians. She resides with her parents Mr. and Mrs. D. G. Mays at 380 Avon Drive.

She is enrolled in the Home Economics course and is very active in SOS, of which she is secretary, future Nurses and Curtain Callers. Sonnie attends the First Baptist Church where she is very active in the youth choir Training Union, YWA, and girls' sextet.

When asked how she felt being a librarian she replied, "It is very interesting, to work with different books, but I also think there should definitely be a lot of changes made."

After graduation Sonnie plans to enter Nurses' Training at Springfield Community Hospital and later become a nurse missionary.

VELDA GALLION, NANCY PRICE, DEBBIE WOODS, JUDY MOORE, PATTY ROBINSON and KEITHA WAGNER (SONNIE STONE NOT PRESENT)

The last of the senior librarians to be interviewed is Keitha Wagner. She resides with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Keith Wagner and her brother Max at 226 Walnut St. She attends the First Methodist Church where she is active in MYF.

Enrolled in the college prep course, Keitha is active in Senior GAA, Drama Club, Rainbow Girls and cheerleading.

This is the first year working as a librarian. When asked her opinion of her work, she replied, "Library work is very interesting and also educational. Learning about books, magazines and library operation is an asset to anyone."

After graduation Keitha plans to attend Virginia Intermont College and major in nursing or physical education.

Sprinter and High Jumper Receive Recognition

DAVE HOPKINS and BOB WILKINSON

By JACK CARLE

This year's edition of the Tiger track squad is not overloaded with veterans, but it is fortified with newcomers. A veteran of three years, Bob Wilkinson, and a newcomer, Dave Hopkins, are featured this week.

Dave Hopkins is a first year man for track and one who is a useful addition to the sprint events. CHS has been weak the past few years in sprinting, and Coach James Lint hopes the addition of Dave will strengthen the tracksters and help push the team to another league championship.

Dave is a junior enrolled in the college prep course but is undecided about the college he would like to attend. He played on the varsity basketball squad this past season in a reserve role.

Dave resides at Route 2, with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Forrest Hopkins.

CHS finds senior Bob Wilkinson standing out among the track team members this year. Bob who resides at 128 Park St. with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Wilkinson, and two brothers and one sister, said, "I really think track is a great sport."

Bob, enrolled in a general course, has participated in three years of track, two of which he lettered. Also among his sports activities he managed football for two years, which he claims is his favorite sport.

Bob is featured in high jumps and running hurdles. He feels track is an individual sport, and helps the boys stay in shape. Art being his favorite subject, Bob also finds sports cars (especially MG's) tops among his interests.

After graduation, Bob plans to attend Ohio University and major in Fine Arts. He feels art is a remarkable way to express ideas as an individual.

The officers of the club are president, Mike Fuller; vice president, Chris Long; treasurer, Don Valentine; secretary, Dennis Shaw; chaplain, Jeff Harr; sergeant-at-arms, Rick Blankenship.

The SOS girls are selling Jr. High pins, CHS or CJHS and the year of graduation on them. The officers of the SOS club, are president, Sue Bennett; vice president, Marilyn Marshall; recording secretary, Linda Struckman; corresponding secretary, Kathy Dunkle; treasurer, June Van Dyke; publicity chairman, Benny Luna; service chairman, Vanessa Hatfield; and program chairman, Debbie Marshall.

This coming Sunday the girls plan to attend St. Philip's Church on W. Mound St. The GAA is planning an Easter assembly and a dance in May.

The club's officers are president, Mary Beth Rhoads; vice president, Lisa Henderson; secretary, Jodi Steele; treasurer, Emily Moon; points chairman, Lisa Rihl; publicity chairman, Betsy Bach; intramural chairman, Cindy Rihl; sergeant-at-arms, Debbie Spears.

Speak well of your enemies. After all, you did make them.

The active have a strong will, the lazy a strong won't.

Westfall Tops CHS Girls in Basketball

March 6, was the start of the season for the CHS girls' basketball games. CHS team consists of Ann Cook, Marion Bremer, Patty Glitt, Nancy Marshall, Susan McGuire, Beth Moore, Marcia Pontious, Patty Seward and Bev Thompson.

In the varsity game against Westfall, Circleville dropped the game by one point 14-13. A bounceback came for Circleville during the reserve game, with the score 10-8.

On March 13, CHS traveled to Pickaway Twp. against Logan Elm. CHS's team came home with a 26-16 victory. The high scorer of the game was Book Cook with 11 points. Other scoring team members were Beth Moore and Sue McGuire with five points; Marion Bremer and Marcia Pontious, two points; and Patty Seward, one point.

The season finishes with a game at Teays Valley and a quadrangular meet with Westfall, Logan Elm, Teays Valley and Circleville.

Two Dancers Choreograph Class Play

The cast for "The Wizard of Oz," CHS Senior Class play, is now blocking the physical movement on stage with the help of the two choreographers, Nancy Benzenberg and Holly Bach.

Nancy is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Larry Varble, 526 Northridge Road. She is a junior enrolled in the college prep and is active in Senior SOS, EMS, NHS, and Luther League.

Nancy has taken dancing lessons for about nine years and is now taking from Stella Becker. When asked about how the play was coming along she replied, "I'm real pleased with the cast. The dancers work real hard, learn fast and do a good job. It's a lot of fun to make up the various types of dances involved and I thoroughly enjoy it. With Holly's help, I think the choreography will work out really well."

Holly is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Bach, 369 Northridge Road. A 16-year-old junior, Holly has taken two years of dancing at Jack Sherrick Studio and she is now taking modern jazz under Mary Eaton.

Her school activities include, GAA, Curtain Callers and Junior Class officer.

Commenting on the play, Holly replied, "I think it is going to be a really great play, but it's going to require double the effort for all those concerned in dancing and singing."

Beverly Carney Among Top Ten In Ohio Contest

By BEEZIE ANDERSON

Beverly Carney, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. G. Carney of 565 Edgewood Drive, was among the ten highest ranking girls in Ohio in the Betty Crocker Search for the American Homemaker of Tomorrow.

The performance of young woman in the Betty Crocker Search stands as a tribute to the outstanding work of our schools in preparing homemakers for their responsibilities.

Bev, a college preparatory senior, was presented a certificate for her achievement.

Cheating Hurts Cheater

By SUSAN CRITES

How would you define cheating? Everyone knows it is wrong, yet a few continue the practice. How about copying a friend's homework, peeking at another's paper during a test or using a crib sheet — are these acts wrong? Stop to think who is missing out on the real "learning" of knowledge. The cheaters really get the bad end of everything. The whole idea of school is to learn, not as a group, but as an individual.

The most frequent excuse given for cheating is that students are under tremendous pressure to get into a college and therefore find it necessary to resort to cheating to get high grades. The students who believe this idea cannot see ahead to the consequences. If a person has to cheat to get good grades in high school, he cannot possibly hope to sail through college or do well in the business world.

Cheating does not only occur in school. It happens in business, marriage, taxes and many other areas. A society as a group can never hope to succeed when its morals have degenerated so far that members cannot see fault in cheating and let it pass by as an everyday occurrence.

Students of the Week

GLENNA WILLIAMS

Glenna Williams and George Griebel Jr., seniors at CHS, were chosen as students of the week.

Glenna resides at 601 Elm Ave., with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Williams and her three sisters. After graduation Glenna plans to attend Lee College in Cleveland, Tenn., majoring in primary education.

When Glenna was told that she was student of the week, she replied, "I was shocked and surprised to know. I never believed it would happen to me."

Glenna is a member of SOS, NHS and EMS.

GEORGE GRIEBEL JR.

George is a very active senior in the field of science.

George is the vice president of the Nuclei Science Club. He finds physics lab a great challenge because this is the place he can put everything that he has learned in class into practice.

Not only does George like science, but he finds all types of sports very interesting. He has excelled in baseball for the last three years.

After graduation George hopes to attend Ohio University and major in zoology.

Affairs Institute Warns Of Communism's Threat

By DARYL BROWN

Editor's Note: Daryl was CHS representative to the Institute held last weekend in Cincinnati.

The twenty-second annual world Affairs Institute was held last Friday and Saturday in the Netherland Hilton Hotel in Cincinnati. Sponsored by International Rotary clubs, the institute was to inform high school students who exhibit outstanding civic qualities of the menace of Communism to the free world.

The first session dealt with the topic of careers in Foreign Service. Four men giving the political, economic, military and educational aspects of a career in foreign service presented valuable information to anyone interested in this area, stressing the vast field of opportunities in this field.

Dr. William E. Griffith of the Massachusetts Institute of Technology was the speaker Friday evening. His subject was "International Communism — Past and Future." He presented an extremely interesting and worthwhile talk and the history of Communism and intelligent speculation on the converse that lay ahead and the effect it would have on our lives. He painted a realistic picture not sparing a drop of truth. Following the dinner a dance was held in the Hall of Mirrors of the Netherland Hilton Hotel.

Saturday morning's panel session discussed Communism from the standpoint of "Economic, Political, and Military Factors and Trends." This was to better inform the delegates on the existing situation of Communism in each of these areas and to thereby equip them with the knowledge with which to combat it.

The delegates then split up into small groups of 25 to 30 people and had the opportunity to debate among themselves the current world problems and situations involving communism, what the causes of the problem are, and what should be done to rectify the situation.

The institute was brought to a conclusion with the luncheon Saturday afternoon which Democratic Senator Gale H. McGee presented the final address. He spoke on "The Challenges of International Communism Through the Seventies." An inspiring address in giving youth to take the lead in combating communism was a fitting conclusion to a well organized institute.

PAM PLUMMER, FRED WAGNER and MELISSA WILLOUGHBY

Wagner Wins DECA Award

By SUSAN DEMJEN

Fred Wagner, a senior at CHS, won first place in the State of Ohio DECA Leadership Conference Business Mathematics Contest held this past weekend at the Neil House in Columbus.

Fred's placing first in this contest means that he has now earned the right to represent Ohio at the National DECA held in Houston, Tex., the first week of May. He will be a voting delegate in Houston and will listen to campaign speeches, work in caucus committees and help elect 1967-69 National DECA officers.

Other representatives to Columbus were Pam Plummer, who served as voting delegate and who helped select the 1963 State DECA officers, and Melissa Willoughby, who served as narrator of the two presentations of the DECA Sweetheart candidates to the conference delegations.

Melissa was also responsible for the girls during their various testing and interview times, as well as serving as narrator when the candidates modeled their formal before the DECA Conference delegation of more than 1,000 persons. The State Department of Distributive Education has asked if Melissa and Pam would represent Ohio DECA in Houston.

Teacher Feature

This week the Journalism class honors Mrs. Mary Alice Greenwood Distributive Education instructor, as the teacher of the week. Mrs. Greenwood has two sons, Don and Ron and they live in Williamsport.

Organization Of Hi-Y Club Began in '27

By GREG WHITE

Circleville Hi-Y Club was organized in 1927 by A. L. Ward, state secretary of the YMCA. At the time of its organization there were 19 members.

The club met regularly at 7 p. m. Mondays under the leadership of principal R. F. Cain, faculty advisor. The officers were president, Grover Moore; vice president, Theodore Heiskell; secretary, Herbert Hammett; treasurer, Emmett Barnhart and sergeant-at-arms, Elliot Barnhill.

The purpose of the Hi-Y Club is to create, maintain and extend throughout the school and community, high standards of Christian character. The platform from which members operates includes clean speech, clean sports, clean scholarship and clean living. The Hi-Y had a successful basketball program. They won five out of eight games.

The advisory committee consisted of Mr. C. R. Barnhart, Mr. Tom Gillian and the Rev. DeCamp. Their duty was to give advice upon any matter pertaining to the school and community.

MARY ALICE GREENWOOD

Mrs. Greenwood attended Williamsport High School, Ohio Wesleyan University where she earned her BA and MA degrees and Ohio State University where she is working on a PhD degree.

Her CHS activities include Junior and Senior DECA Advisor and faculty treasurer. Mrs. Greenwood bases her grades on class discussion, quizzes, tests, projects and work experiences.

"I'm very happy to be chosen teacher of the week at this time because we have just returned this past weekend from the State DECA Leadership Conference where we were very successful," stated Mrs. Greenwood.

What you say as well as what what you do not say says a lot about you.

Prices Going Up? Yes!

(But Not Yet)

It's a known fact that housing prices will be HIGHER this year! In anticipation of this increase, the Tectonics Construction Co., builders of Logan Elm Village, have started 10 new homes. These new homes will be at the current, low price.

If a new home is in your plans, it certainly would pay you to investigate Logan Elm Village now before prices go up.

The Red and Black

Seven Senior Girls Are Working in CHS Library

This week the Red and Black would like to honor the senior girls who devote at least one period a day to working in the library. They are Patty Robinson, Nancy Price, Debbie Woods, Velda Gallion, Judy Moore, Sonnie Stone and Keitha Wagner.

Patty Robinson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John D. Robinson, Route 3, is enrolled in the college prep course. Besides working in the library, she is president of Senior SOS and belongs to Curtain Callers, MYF and Girl Scouts. Presently she is involved in the Toastmaster's Leadership Course and the Senior Class Musical. Her interests include music and sewing. She plans to attend several camps this summer and visit some of the beaches along the Atlantic coast. She will start attending Ohio State University in the fall.

Patty said, "working in the library has given me the opportunity to meet people and help them in some small way."

The next librarian to be recognized is Nancy Ann Price, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James W. Price of 550 Garden Parkway.

Nancy is enrolled in the college prep course with American Government being her favorite subject. After graduation she plans to attend the University of Cincinnati and major in nursing.

This is Nancy's first year as a librarian and she commented, "It has been a lot of fun and has given me a great deal of knowledge as to the way a library is run."

Nancy is active in GAA, Drama Club, Canteen Council, Rainbow and the Historical Society.

Another energetic senior librarian is Debbie Woods, who has been a librarian for three years. When asked why she likes library work, she replied, "I love to read and I find my contact with books, magazines, and other reading material through my library work very enjoyable and worthwhile."

Enrolled in the college preparatory course, Debbie is active in EMS, SOS, Curtain Callers, Girl Scouts, Rainbow, Presbyterian WF and the senior class play.

After graduation Debbie plans to attend the University of Kentucky in Lexington and major in history with a degree in secondary education. She has also considered taking a Master's degree in Library Science.

Debbie lives on Route 4 with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John R. Woods and her sister, Amy.

CHS librarian second period is Velda Gallion. She resides with Mr. and Mrs. M. W. Dearth at 139 York St. Velda attends the Nazarene Church and enjoys babysitting, a certain boy, and the record "Words" by the Bee Gees.

Among her duties in the library are checking in and out books, shelving books and magazines, helping students locate their books and checking the library list. This is Velda's first year working in the library. "I thought it would be an opportunity to help other students and gain work experience."

Plans after graduation include attending an airline training center. Velda stated, "I was very thrilled and happy to be one of the senior librarians chosen to be interviewed."

Judy Moore is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Delmore Moore. She resides at 132 N. Pickaway St.

Judy has worked in the library for two years. When asked why she decided to work in the library she stated: "To learn more about library procedures and the work involved in getting a book out to be put on the shelf."

Her interest include bowling, stamp collecting and the Lettermen. She is also active in Senior SOS.

Judy plans to get a secretarial job after graduation.

Sonnie Stone is another one of our senior librarians. She resides with her parents Mr. and Mrs. D. G. Mays at 380 Avon Drive.

She is enrolled in the Home Economics course and is very active in SOS, of which she is secretary, future Nurses and Curtain Callers. Sonnie attends the First Baptist Church where she is very active in the youth choir Training Union, YWA and girls' sextet.

When asked how she felt being a librarian she replied, "It is very interesting, to work with different books, but I also think there should definitely be a lot of changes made."

After graduation Sonnie plans to enter Nurses' Training at Springfield Community Hospital and later become a nurse missionary.

VELDA GALLION, NANCY PRICE, DEBBIE WOODS, JUDY MOORE, PATTY ROBINSON and KEITHA WAGNER (SONNIE STONE NOT PRESENT)

The last of the senior librarians to be interviewed is Keitha Wagner. She resides with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Keith Wagner and her brother Max at 226 Walnut St. She attends the First Methodist Church where she is active in MYF.

Enrolled in the college prep course, Keitha is active in Senior GAA, Drama Club, Rainbow Girls and cheerleading.

This is the first year working as a librarian. When asked her opinion of her work, she replied, "Library work is very interesting and also educational. Learning about books, magazines and library operation is an asset to anyone."

After graduation Keitha plans to attend Virginia Intermont College and major in nursing or physical education.

Westfall Tops CHS Girls in Basketball

March 6, was the start of the season for the CHS girls' basketball games. CHS team consists of Ann Cook, Marion Brehmer, Patty Glitt, Nancy Marshall, Susan McGuire, Beth Moore, Marcia Pontious, Patty Seward and Bev Thompson.

In the varsity game against Westfall, Circleville dropped the game by one point 14-13. A bounceback came for Circleville during the reserve game, with the score 10-8.

On March 13, CHS traveled to Pickaway Twp. against Logan Elm. CHS's team came home with a 26-16 victory. The high scorer of the game was Book Cook with 11 points. Other scoring team members were Beth Moore and Sue McGuire with five points; Marion Brehmer and Marcia Pontious, two points; and Patty Seward, one point.

The season finishes with a game at Teays Valley and a quadrangular meet with Westfall, Logan Elm, Teays Valley and Circleville.

Two Dancers Choreograph Class Play

The cast for "The Wizard of Oz," CHS Senior Class play, is now blocking the physical movement on stage with the help of the two choreographers, Nancy Benzenberg and Holly Bach.

Nancy is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Larry Varble, 526 Northridge Road. She is a junior enrolled in the college prep and is active in Senior SOS, EMS, NHS, and Luther League.

Nancy has taken dancing lessons for about nine years and is now taking from Stella Becker. When asked about how the play was coming along she replied, "I'm real pleased with the cast. The dancers work real hard, learn fast and do a good job. It's a lot of fun to make up the various types of dances involved and I thoroughly enjoy it. With Holly's help, I think the choreography will work out really well."

Holly is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Bach, 369 Northridge Road. A 16-year-old junior, Holly has taken two years of dancing at Jack Sherrick Studio and she is now taking modern jazz under Mary Eaton.

Her school activities include, GAA, Curtain Callers and Junior Class officer.

Commenting on the play, Holly replied, "I think it is going to be a really great play, but it's going to require double the effort for all those concerned in dancing and singing."

Beverly Carney Among Top Ten In Ohio Contest

By BEEZIE ANDERSON

Beverly Carney, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. G. Carney of 565 Edgewood Drive, was among the ten highest ranking girls in Ohio in the Betty Crocker Search for the American Homemaker of Tomorrow.

The performance of young woman in the Betty Crocker Search stands as a tribute to the outstanding work of our schools in preparing homemakers for their responsibilities.

Bev, a college preparatory senior, was presented a certificate for her achievement.

Cheating Hurts Cheater

By SUSAN CRITES

How would you define cheating? Everyone knows it is wrong, yet a few continue the practice. How about copying a friend's homework, peeking at another's paper during a test or using a crib sheet — are these acts wrong? Stop to think who is missing out on the real "learning" of knowledge. The cheaters really get the bad end of everything. The whole idea of school is to learn, not as a group, but as an individual.

The most frequent excuse given for cheating is that students are under tremendous pressure to get into a college and therefore find it necessary to resort to cheating to get high grades. The students who believe this idea cannot see ahead to the consequences. If a person has to cheat to get good grades in high school, he cannot possibly hope to sail through college or do well in the business world.

Cheating does not only occur in school. It happens in business, marriage, taxes and many other areas. A society as a group can never hope to succeed when its morals have degenerated so far that members cannot see fault in cheating and let it pass by as an everyday occurrence.

Students of the Week

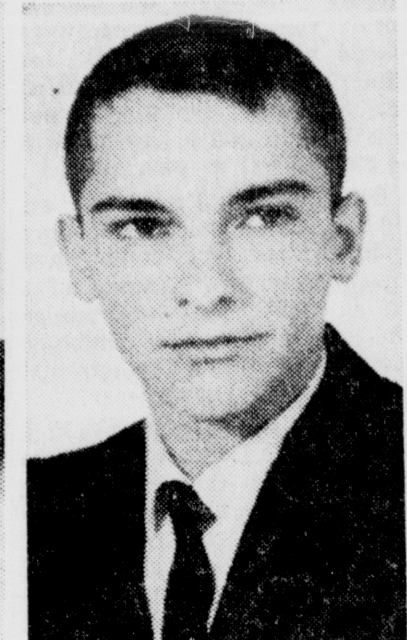

GLENNA WILLIAMS

Glenna Williams and George Griebel Jr., seniors at CHS, were chosen as students of the week.

Glenna resides at 601 Elm Ave., with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Williams and her three sisters. After graduation Glenna plans to attend Lee College in Cleveland, Tenn., majoring in primary education.

When Glenna was told that she was student of the week, she replied, "I was shocked and surprised to know, I never believed it would happen to me."

Glenna is a member of SOS, NHS and EMS.

GEORGE GRIEBEL JR.

George is a very active senior in the field of science.

George is the vice president of the Nuclei Science Club. He finds physics lab a great challenge because this is the place he can put everything that he has learned in class into practice.

Not only does George like science, but he finds all types of sports very interesting. He has excelled in baseball for the last three years.

After graduation George hopes to attend Ohio University and major in zoology.

Affairs Institute Warns Of Communism's Threat

By DARYL BROWN

Editor's Note: Daryl was CHS representative to the Institute held last weekend in Cincinnati.

The twenty-second annual world Affairs Institute was held last Friday and Saturday in the Netherland Hilton Hotel in Cincinnati. Sponsored by International Rotary clubs, the institute was to inform high school students who exhibit outstanding civic qualities of the menace of Communism to the free world.

The first session dealt with the topic of careers in Foreign Service. Four men giving the political, economic, military and educational aspects of a career in foreign service presented valuable information to anyone interested in this area, stressing the vast field of opportunities in this field.

Dr. William E. Griffith of the Massachusetts Institute of Technology was the speaker Friday evening. His subject was "International Communism — Past and Future." He presented an extremely interesting and worthwhile talk and the history of Communism and intelligent speculation on the converse that lay ahead and the effect it would have on our lives. He painted a realistic picture not sparing a drop of truth. Following the dinner a dance was held in the Hall of Mirrors of the Netherland Hilton Hotel.

Saturday morning's panel session discussed Communism from the standpoint of "Economic, Political, and Military Factors and Trends." This was to better inform the delegates on the existing situation of Communism in each of these areas and to thereby equip them with the knowledge with which to combat it.

The delegates then split up into small groups of 25 to 30 people and had the opportunity to debate among themselves the current world problems and situations involving communism, what the causes of the problem are, and what should be done to rectify the situation.

The institute was brought to a conclusion with the luncheon Saturday afternoon which Democratic Senator Gale H. McGee presented the final address. He spoke on "The Challenges of International Communism Through the Seventies." An inspiring address in giving youth to take the lead in combatting communism was a fitting conclusion to a well organized institute.

PAM PLUMMER, FRED WAGNER and MELISSA WILLOUGHBY

Wagner Wins DECA Award

By SUSAN DEMJEN

Fred Wagner, a senior at CHS, won first place in the State of Ohio DECA Leadership Conference Business Mathematics Contest held this past weekend at the Neil House in Columbus.

Fred's placing first in this contest means that he has now earned the right to represent Ohio at the National DECA held in Houston, Tex., the first week of May. He will be a voting delegate in Houston and will listen to campaign speeches, work in caucus committees and help elect 1967-68 National DECA officers.

Other representatives to Columbus were Pam Plummer, who served as voting delegate and who helped select the 1968 State DECA officers, and Melissa Willoughby, who served as narrator of the two presentations of the DECA Sweetheart candidates to the conference delegations.

Melissa was also responsible for the girls during their various testing and interview times, as well as serving as narrator when the candidates modeled their formal before the DECA Conference delegation of more than 1,000 persons. The State Department of Distributive Education has asked if Melissa and Pam would represent Ohio DECA in Houston.

Teacher Feature

This week the Journalism class honors Mrs. Mary Alice Greenwood Distributive Education instructor, as the teacher of the week. Mrs. Greenwood has two sons, Don and Ron and they live in Williamsport.

Organization Of Hi-Y Club Began in '27

By GREG WHITE

Circleville Hi-Y Club was organized in 1927 by A. L. Ward, state secretary of the YMCA. At the time of its organization there were 19 members.

The club met regularly at 7 p. m. Mondays under the leadership of principal R. F. Cain, faculty advisor. The officers were president, Grover Moore; vice president, Theodore Heiskell; secretary, Herbert Hammett; treasurer, Emmett Barnhart and sergeant-at-arms, Elliot Barnhill.

The purpose of the Hi-Y Club is to create, maintain and extend throughout the school and community, high standards of Christian character. The platform from which members operate includes clean speech, clean sports, clean scholarship and clean living. The Hi-Y had a successful basketball program. They won five out of eight games.

The advisory committee consisted of Mr. C. R. Barnhart, Mr. Tom Gillian and the Rev. DeCamp. Their duty was to give advice upon any matter pertaining to the school and community.

Mrs. Greenwood attended Williamsport High School, Ohio Wesleyan University where she earned her BA and MA degrees and Ohio State University where she is working on a PhD degree.

Her CHS activities include Junior and Senior DECA Advisor and faculty treasurer.

Mrs. Greenwood bases her grades on class discussion, quizzes, tests, projects and work experiences.

"I'm very happy to be chosen teacher of the week at this time because we have just returned this past weekend from the State DECA Leadership Conference where we were very successful," stated Mrs. Greenwood.

What you say as well as what what you do not say says a lot about you.

Sprinter and High Jumper Receive Recognition

DAVE HOPKINS and BOB WILKINSON

By JACK CARLE

This year's edition of the Tiger track squad is not overloaded with veterans, but it is fortified with newcomers. A veteran of three years, Bob Wilkinson, and a newcomer, Dave Hopkins, are featured this week.

Dave Hopkins is a first year man for track and one who is a useful addition to the sprint events. CHS has been weak the past few years in sprinting, and Coach James Lint hopes the addition of Dave will strengthen the tracksters and help push the team to another league championship.

Dave is a junior enrolled in the college prep course but is undecided about the college he would like to attend. He played on the varsity basketball squad this past season in a reserve role.

Dave resides at Route 2, with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Forrest Hopkins.

CHS finds senior Bob Wilkinson standing out among the track team members this year. Bob who resides at 128 Park St. with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Wilkinson, and two brothers and one sister, said, "I really think track is a great sport."

Bob, enrolled in a general course, has participated in three years of track, two of which he lettered. Also among his sports activities he managed football for two years, which he claims is his favorite sport.

Bob is featured in high jumps and running hurdles. He feels track is an individual sport, and helps the boys stay in shape.

Art being his favorite subject, Bob also finds sports cars (especially MG's) tops among his interests.

After graduation, Bob plans to attend Ohio University and major in Fine Arts. He feels art is a remarkable way to express ideas as an individual.

The SOS girls are selling Jr. High pins, CHS or CJHS and the year of graduation on them.

The officers of the SOS club, are president, Sue Bennett; vice president, Marilyn Marshall; recording secretary, Linda Struckman; corresponding secretary, Kathy Dunkle; treasurer, June Van Dyke; publicity chairman, Benny Luna; service chairman, Vanessa Hatfield; and program chairman, Debbie Marshall.

This coming Sunday the girls plan to attend St. Philip's Church on W. Mound St.

The GAA is planning an Easter assembly and a dance in May.

The club's officers are president, Mary Beth Rhoads; vice president, Lisa Henderson; secretary, Jodi Steele; treasurer, Emily Moon; points chairman, Lisa Rihl; publicity chairman, Betsy Bach; intramural chairman, Cindy Rihl; sergeant-at-arms, Debbie Spears.

Prices Going Up? Yes!

(But Not Yet)

It's a known fact that housing prices will be HIGHER this year! In anticipation of this increase, the Tectonics Construction Co., builders of Logan Elm Village, have started 10 new homes. These new homes will be at the current, low price.

If a new home is in your plans, it certainly would pay you to investigate Logan Elm Village now before prices go up.

Many people are interested in seeing the city-owned property along Deer Creek developed into a park and recreational area. One of the first things brought to mind at this time of year would be a ball diamond. This might be good as an initial project but other possibilities are limitless. It would all depend on what the people in the Williamsport Community want and are willing to work for. We had a park down where I used to live. It had tennis courts, horseshoe pits, ball diamonds, big shade trees, etc. We even had a beauty contest once but the girls weren't too... well, the fact is nobody won. People lost interest after that but heck anyone can have a crop failure.

Swallows come back to Capistrano... Buzzards come back to Hinkley... Bicycles come back to Williamsport... They returned this year on Sunday, March 17th. Early arrivals were noted around noon. As the afternoon progressed more and more came until the streets were filled. Red, blue, green, yellow, black, orange. Big ones and small ones. They travel in pairs or in groups. Most of them roosted at the Dairy Shed.

Sunday, of course, was also St. Patrick's Day. Mike McCafferty wanted to lead a parade through town but there aren't too many Irishmen around here. There are Irishwomen. Paddy O'Brayshaw, Paddy McMetzger, Paddy O'Gle, Paddy P-Pond and Paddy McClark. They all wanted to be excused though... something about fixing dinner and washing dishes. We only have one leprechaun in town and Mike hit him with a shillelagh Saturday night while practicing so it wouldn't have been much of a parade anyway.

It's a good thing Ohio State finishes basketball this weekend. Johnny Reynolds almost lost his fingernails the night they played Iowa and after the Kentucky game doesn't have any left. He and Janne were in Lexington for both games. Doris is buying boxing gloves for him to wear tonight. That should

Solon Fast's To Support Hot Lunches

JUNEAU, Alaska (AP) — "It's funny," Sen. Robert R. Blodgett said today as he began the fifth day of a fast for hot school lunches, "but the thing I really crave is reindeer sausage."

Blodgett comes from teller, heart of Alaska's reindeer country, so he isn't kidding about the kind of sausage. He said he isn't fooling, either, about fasting until the legislature either pays for the lunch program or adjourns, perhaps in three weeks.

The state Senate authorized hot lunches for about 90 state-operated rural schools and appropriated $500,000 to get the program started, but has not yet acted on a bill to fund it on an annual basis. The House has taken no action.

Blodgett wants the state to tax nonresidents employed in Alaska $10 each annually to keep the hot lunches cooking. He estimates the tax would bring in $500,000 a year.

The 47-year-old trader says his weight has dropped from 210 pounds to 202 and his girth from 39 inches to 39, but he added: "I didn't go into this thing on the spur of the moment, and I intend to stay with it until we get the program, or the session ends."

keep him from biting his fingers. The only concern now is how to eat potato chips while wearing boxing gloves.

If you have any items for Haiti, you should take them to Reverend Williams by March 30th. The need is tremendous, but the wants are simple. A look at the list posted inside the church would probably reveal that you have things destined for scrap that they are desperate for. Why not take a look around? Call him if you have anything that you no longer use or need. He can tell you if they need it.

This is part of "Operation Handclasp" supporting a Children's Hospital and three orphanages so children's clothing and toys are valuable to them. He will show slides taken in Haiti at the Methodist Church 7:30 Sunday night.

Biggy Hastings catches more fish than anyone in town and says the least about it. He can catch them at 10 degrees below or 100 above. The most he would say the other day is that he has already, this year, caught several bass around 17 pounds (or was it 17 inches?). Anyone else fishing in the weather he does would turn blue around the gills and if they did not catch anything would carp about it.

The Westfall Basketball Banquet was Thursday night. The point in having the banquet after the season is over is now obvious. Those boys couldn't jump for two weeks if they ate that way all the time.

Riot Report Sells Like Hot Cakes

NEW YORK (AP) — Only two weeks old, the paperback edition of the report of the President's Commission on Civil Disorders is already soaring toward million-seller status. And it's sparking a number of projects among businessmen, in churches, and in poor communities.

A spokesman for Bantam Books said Thursday the publishing house has just ordered 70,000 more copies printed, bringing the total to 810,000. The 720-page, $1.25 edition sold 300,000 copies in its first three days, leading some outlets to call it "the fastest seller since Valley of the Dolls."

Target Date for New Ohio River Bridge: Fall, 1969

WASHINGTON (AP) — West Virginia, Ohio and federal highway officials have agreed on either August or September 1969 as a target date for completion of a bridge to replace the Ohio River span at Point Pleasant, W. Va. that collapsed Dec. 15 taking at least 46 persons to their deaths.

Keep Wolf Away

DALLAS, Tex. (AP) — Dallas County commissioners have taken steps to keep the wolf from the door. Commissioners said Thursday they will pay a wolf trapper $250 per month for nine months to deal with the pesky critters.

The target date was chosen at a meeting between the highway officials Thursday.

Federal Highway Administration spokesman Don Stull said the meeting was called to set up administrative machinery for constructing the bridge. He said the cost is expected to be between $10 and $12 million.

Stull noted all plans for the new bridge are tentative pending a Coast Guard hearing April 9 in Huntington, W. Va. The highway group, which included West Virginia Road Commissioner M. R. Hamill and Ohio Highway Director Pearl Masheter, agreed that a suspended cantilever type bridge similar to one at Vicksburg, Miss., is the most suitable design.

Stull said the group hopes contracts can be let and work started in May.

The site agreed upon is about a quarter mile below the original site, near the junction of the Ohio and Kanawha rivers at Henderson, W. Va.

Joseph J. O'Connell Jr., chairman of the National Transportation Safety Board, said any attempts to pinpoint the cause of the Dec. 15 disaster that killed at least 46 persons would be nothing more than speculation.

"We have made no statement yet on details of our investigation and we don't plan to yet," O'Connell said.

He said a meeting is planned in Washington next Tuesday to study field reports on the wreckage.

"We're hopeful we'll get a complete enough field report on it then and out of it we'll know precisely where we stand," O'Connell said.

He added if further laboratory and metallurgical tests aren't indicated by the field report, a public hearing will be announced. He said the hearing would be held in West Virginia.

Humphrey Alludes To Viet Review

PITTSBURGH, Pa. (AP) — Vice President Hubert H. Humphrey says the Johnson administration has undertaken in recent days "an intensive review" to find "some better or more effective way to peace" in Vietnam.

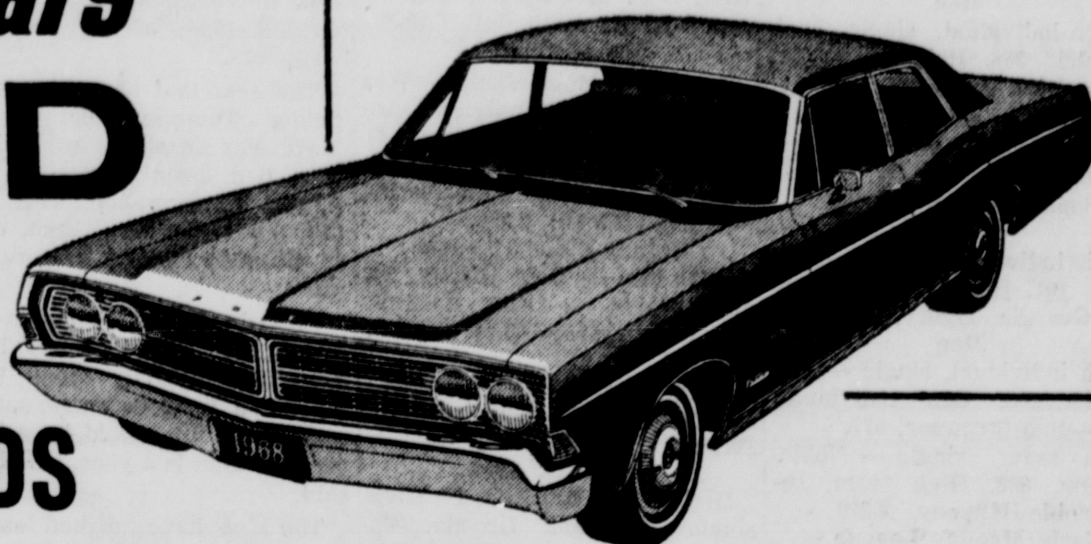

Humphrey did not elaborate. His speech was prepared for delivery today at a Democratic regional conference.

After brief mention of the review he added "there can be no true and lasting peace in Vietnam, or Southeast Asia, until militant and powerful Communist forces are convinced that aggression will not pay—and that they must turn to honest negotiation."

The state Senate authorized hot lunches for about 90 state-operated rural schools and appropriated $500,000 to get the program started, but has not yet acted on a bill to fund it on an annual basis. The House has taken no action.

Blodgett wants the state to tax nonresidents employed in Alaska $10 each annually to keep the hot lunches cooking. He estimates the tax would bring in $500,000 a year.

The 47-year-old trader says his weight has dropped from 210 pounds to 202 and his girth from 39 1/2 inches to 39, but he added: "I didn't go into this thing on the spur of the moment, and I intend to stay with it until we get the program, or the session ends."

If you have any items for Haiti, you should take them to Reverend Williams by March 30th. The need is tremendous, but the wants are simple. A look at the list posted inside the church would probably reveal that you have things destined for scrap that they are desperate for. Why not take a look around? Call him if you have anything that you no longer use or need. He can tell you if they need it.

This is part of "Operation Handclasp" supporting a Children's Hospital and three orphanages so children's clothing and toys are valuable to them. He will show slides taken in Haiti at the Methodist Church 7-30 Sunday night.

Biggy Hastings catches more fish than anyone in town and says the least about it. He can catch them at 10 degrees below or 100 above. The most he would say the other day is that he has already, this year, caught several bass around 17 pounds (or was it 17 inches?). Anyone else fishing in the weather he does would turn blue around the gills and if they did not catch anything would carp about it.

The Westfall Basketball Banquet was Thursday night. The point in having the banquet after the season is over is now obvious. Those boys couldn't jump for two weeks if they ate that way all the time.

Riot Report Sells Like Hot Cakes

NEW YORK (AP) — Only two weeks old, the paperback edition of the report of the President's Commission on Civil Disorders is already soaring toward million-seller status. And it's sparking a number of projects among businessmen, in churches, and in poor communities.

A spokesman for Bantam Books said Thursday the publishing house has just ordered 70,000 more copies printed, bringing the total to 810,000. The 720-page, $1.25 edition sold 300,000 copies in its first three days, leading some outlets to call it "the fastest seller since Valley of the Dolls."

Target Date for New Ohio River Bridge: Fall, 1969

WASHINGTON (AP) — West Virginia, Ohio and federal highway officials have agreed on either August or September 1969 as a target date for completion of a bridge to replace the Ohio River span at Point Pleasant, W. Va. that collapsed Dec. 15 taking at least 46 persons to their deaths.

Keep Wolf Away

DALLAS, Tex. (AP) — Dallas County commissioners have taken steps to keep the wolf from the door. Commissioners said Thursday they will pay a wolf trapper $250 per month for nine months to deal with the pesky critters.

The target date was chosen at a meeting between the highway officials Thursday.

Federal Highway Administration spokesman Don Stull said the meeting was called to set up administrative machinery for constructing the bridge. He said the cost is expected to be between $10 and $12 million.

Stull noted all plans for the new bridge are tentative pending a Coast Guard hearing April 9 in Huntington, W. Va.

The highway group, which included West Virginia Road Commissioner M. R. Hamill and Ohio Highway Director Pearl Masheter, agreed that a suspended cantilever type bridge similar to one at Vicksburg, Miss., is the most suitable design.

Stull said the group hopes contracts can be let and work started in May.

The site agreed upon is about a quarter mile below the original site, near the junction of the Ohio and Kanawha rivers at Henderson, W. Va.

Joseph J. O'Connell Jr., chairman of the National Transportation Safety Board, said any attempts to pinpoint the cause of the Dec. 15 disaster that killed at least 46 persons would be nothing more than speculation.

"We have made no statement yet on details of our investigation and we don't plan to yet," O'Connell said.

He said a meeting is planned in Washington next Tuesday to study field reports on the wreckage.

"We're hopeful we'll get a complete enough field report on it then and out of it we'll know precisely where we stand," O'Connell said.

He added if further laboratory and metallurgical tests aren't indicated by the field report, a public hearing will be announced. He said the hearing would be held in West Virginia.

Humphrey Alludes To Viet Review

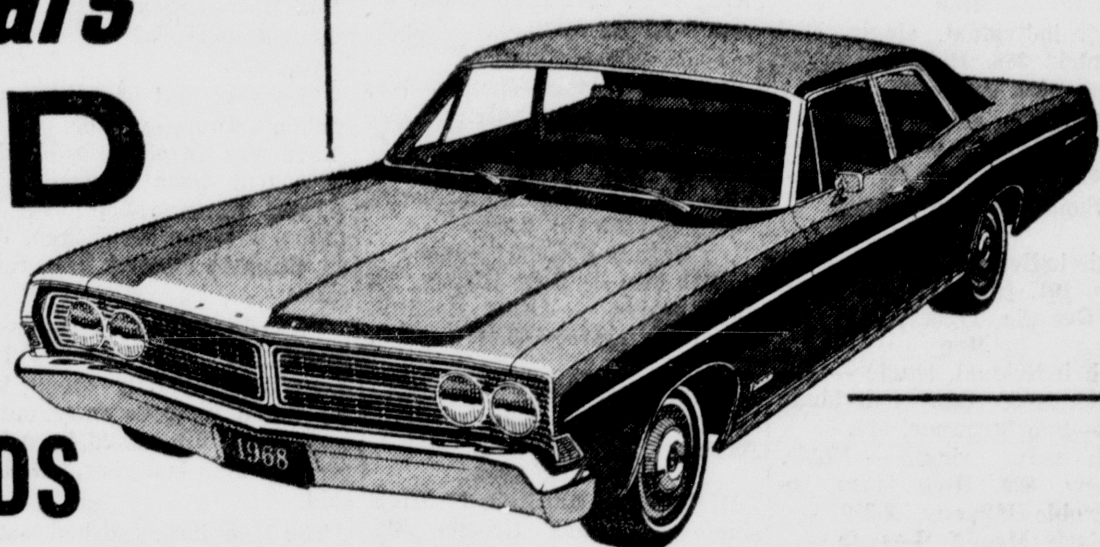

PITTSBURGH, Pa. (AP) — Vice President Hubert H. Humphrey says the Johnson administration has undertaken in recent days "an intensive review" to find "some better or more effective way to peace" in Vietnam.

Humphrey did not elaborate. His speech was prepared for delivery today at a Democratic regional conference.

After brief mention of the review he added "there can be no true and lasting peace in Vietnam, or Southeast Asia, until militant and powerful Communist forces are convinced that aggression will not pay—and that they must turn to honest negotiation."

East Opens Bid for Cage Supremacy

By HAL PARIS

Associated Press Sports Writer
COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Strong Columbus East opens its bid today to bring the Capital City its second straight class AA basketball championship and the city's fourth in the last six years.

The unbeaten Tigers, riding a 22-game winning streak, are favored to gain their third state high school crown as the eight survivors of a field numbering more than 840 come to grips in the scholastic schoolboy championship tournament.

Columbus Linden McKinley won a year ago, Columbus South in 1965 and Columbus East in 1963. Strasburg was the Class A victor in 1967.

Capacity crowds, as usual, are expected to fill St. John Arena for the opening Class A doubleheader at 1:30 p. m.

Semifinal action continues through the day with the Saturday finals set for 2:00 p. m. and 7:30 p. m. in Class A and AA, respectively.

This is the lineup:
Class A: Springfield Local of Mahoning County (23-2) vs. Cincinnati Lincoln Heights (14-10) 1:30 p. m.

Western Pike (26-0) vs. Mansfield St. Peter (24-3) 3:30 p. m.
Class AA:

Lima Senior (21-3) vs. Hamilton Garfield (22-3) 7:30 p. m.
Columbus East (22-0) vs. Euclid (22-2) 9:30 p. m.

Coach Bob Hart's No. 1 ranked Tigers, boasting a towering front line, are the choice of most veteran observers. But favorites have lost here before.

Lima, Hamilton and Euclid, buoyed by late season surges, know only two more victories can turn a good season into complete success.

Euclid may have the toughest task. It opens against East and will need a superlative performance from All-Ohio Al Vilcheck, who leads the Panthers in shooting and rebounding.

The 6-foot-9 Vilcheck may not be able to do it alone. He must combat all-stater Randy Smith, 6-6, and East forwards Ed Ratless and Nick Connor, both 6-5.

The Tigers are an aggressive run-and-shoot team that controls the boards and uses a press to good advantage.

The Hamilton-Lima match rates a tossup despite the fact that Garfield turned back the Spartans 74-69 during the regular campaign. Both scored impressive regional triumphs to reach the state classic, Senior sidelining Toledo Central and Garfield disposing of strong Cincinnati Elder.

East is the lone entry with a championship but Hamilton Public won three before the school was divided into Garfield and Taft.

The four combatants in Class A are making their deepest penetration and only Western comes in unscathed.

But the Pike Countains must battle strong St. Peter's, which lost three all season, all to AA schools and all by only two-point margins.

All-Ohio John Kennedy leads Springfield Local against Cinderella-dubbed Lincoln Heights. The Cincinnati school picked up steam in tournament games and had to get by two-time king Dixie in the Troy regional to advance this far.

Mike Battle, a 6-5 junior, tops the Heights' attack while all-staters Doug Alt and Ray Riggs lead Mansfield and Western, respectively.

Hodge Faces Tough Task; Mets

By JACK HAND

Associated Press Sports Writer
ST. PETERSBURG, Fla. (AP) — Gil Hodges, everybody's nice guy, faces a monumental task in leading the New York Mets out of the National League cellar.

A Met original who had been away from the club since May 22, 1963 when he took over as manager at Washington, Hodges came home last Oct. 11 in a deal that sent a bundle of cash and a rookie pitcher to Washington.

Everything is strange to Gil. He hadn't even seen the Mets on television since '63. He knew he had a nucleus of Tom Seaver, Bud Harrelson and Ron Swoboda but most of the rest are strangers.

The deal that brought center-fielder Tommie Agee to the Mets was inspired by Hodges who had been impressed by Agee's performance with the Chicago White Sox. Agee, only 25, fits into Hodges' long range plans.

"We do expect to show improvement this year. That doesn't necessarily mean that we would have to move out of 10th place. We should be a better club than last year," Hodges said.

The Mets have finished last in five of the six years of their existence, emerging into ninth place in 1966 under Wes Westrum.

A shortage of experienced pitching, holes at second base and third base and lack of power are the most important deficiencies.

The outfield appears to be the strongest area with Agee anchored in center, flanked by Swoboda in right and Cleon Jones in left.

Jones, a Mobile, Ala. school-boy buddy of Agee's is expected to perk up after his 1967 slump to .246. Swoboda, a potentially dangerous home run hitter—and sometimes just as dangerous in the outfield—arrived last year with a .281 mark. Art Shamsky, ex-Cincinnati Red, and Amos Otis, another Mobile lad, are among the army battling for the spare jobs.

Harrelson, at 145 pounds, convinced the Mets he could hit enough (.254) to hold down a regular shortstop job with his sparkling fielding last season.

Ed Kranepool, 23, an $85,000 bonus baby in the days when Hodges was with the Mets, still has not lived up to his early promise at first base.

Second and third are up for grabs. Al Weis, a handyman who came with Agee in the deal with the White Sox, could wind up at second. Rookies Dave Boswell, Bob Heise and Kevin Collins are trying to impress the boss.

Dick Kenworthy, bought conditionally from the White Sox, is getting a shot at third base. Others are veteran Jerry Buchek or Ed Charles, who is not even on the roster.

J. C. Martin, also obtained from the White Sox looks like the new No. 1 catcher. He bats left-handed and probably will platoon with Jerry Grote.

Except for Seaver, the 1967

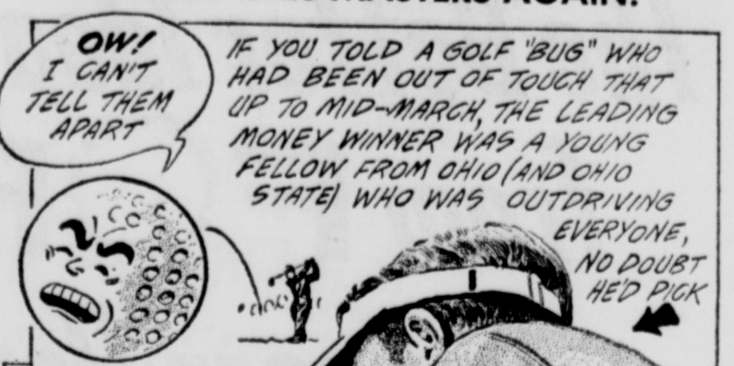

NL Rookie of the Year with his impressive 16-13 record, the pitching staff is wide open. The veteran Cardwell, with a history of arm trouble, and lefty Al Jackson, back from the Cards, have the most experience.

Jerry Koosman and Nolan Ryan, the strikeout phenom of the minors who hurt his elbow last summer, look like the best of the young crop.

Hal Reniff, the ex-New York Yankee, is getting a look. So is Bob Hendley, still recuperating from elbow surgery.

Tug McGraw, Cal Koonce and Dan Frisella have a chance. The bullpen will be manned primarily by Ron Taylor and Don Shaw and possibly Ron Paul.

CRITICAL PATH CROP PROGRAM

AGRICO® plowdown helps crops use more soil moisture

Most soils contain more water than crops can use—because roots don't grow big enough, thick enough or deep enough to utilize soil moisture before hot summer days bake it away.

Agrico Plowdown fertilizers correct soil deficiencies; They increase root-tip availability of vital plant food nutrients. Roots grow faster, grow bigger, grow deeper. Deep roots tap deep-soil moisture to keep plants growing during summer dry spells.

Agrico Critical Path Crop Programs show you how to select Agrico Plowdown fertilizers to build soil fertility and root-tip plant food availability to grow bigger, better crops.

This is the lineup:

Class A:
Springfield Local of Mahoning County (23 - 2) vs. Cincinnati Lincoln Heights (14 - 10) 1:30 p.m.

Western Pike (26-0) vs. Mansfield St. Peter (24-3) 3:30 p.m.

Class AA:

Lima Senior (21-3) vs. Hamilton Garfield (22-3) 7:30 p. m.
Columbus East (22 - 0) vs. Euclid (22-2) 9:30 p. m.

Coach Bob Hart's No. 1-ranked Tigers, boasting a towering front line, are the choice of most veteran observers. But favorites have lost here before.

Lima, Hamilton and Euclid, buoyed by late season surges, know only two more victories can turn a good season into complete success.

Euclid may have the toughest task. It opens against East and will need a superlative performance from All-Ohio Al Vilcheck, who leads the Panthers in shooting and rebounding.

The 6-foot-9 Vilcheck may not be able to do it alone. He must combat all-stater Randy Smith, 6 - 6, and East forwards Ed Ratless and Nick Connor, both 6-5.

The Tigers are an aggressive run-and-shoot team that controls the boards and uses a press to good advantage.

The Hamilton - Lima match rates a tossup despite the fact that Garfield turned back the Spartans 74-69 during the regular campaign. Both scored impressive regional triumphs to reach the state classic, Senior sidelining Toledo Central and Garfield disposing of strong Cincinnati Elder.

East is the lone entry with a championship but Hamilton Public won three before the school was divided into Garfield and Taft.

The four combatants in Class A are making their deepest penetration and only Western comes in unscathed.

But the Pike Countains must battle strong St. Peter's, which lost three all season, all to AA schools and all by only two point margins.

All-Ohio John Kennedy leads Springfield Local against Cinderella-dubbed Lincoln Heights. The Cincinnati school picked up steam in tournament games and had to get by two-time king Dixie in the Troy regional to advance this far.

Mike Battle, a 6-5 junior, tops the Heights' attack while all-staters Doug Alt and Ray Riggsby lead Mansfield and Western, respectively.

Hodge Faces Tough Task; Mets

By JACK HAND

Associated Press Sports Writer

ST. PETERSBURG, Fla. (AP) —

Gil Hodges, everybody's nice guy, faces a monumental task in leading the New York Mets out of the National League cellar.

A Met original who had been away from the club since May 22, 1963 when he took over as manager at Washington, Hodges came home last Oct. 11 in a deal that sent a bundle of cash and a rookie pitcher to Washington.

Everything is strange to Gil. He hadn't even seen the Mets on television since '63. He knew he had a nucleus of Tom Seaver, Bud Harrelson and Ron Swoboda but most of the rest are strangers.

The deal that brought center-fielder Tommie Agee to the Mets was inspired by Hodges who had been impressed by Agee's performance with the Chicago White Sox. Agee, only 25, fits into Hodges' long range plans.

"We do expect to show improvement this year. That doesn't necessarily mean that we would have to move out of 10th place. We should be a better club than last year," Hodges said.

The Mets have finished last in five of the six years of their existence, emerging into ninth place in 1966 under Wes Westrum.

A shortage of experienced pitching, holes at second base and third base and lack of power are the most important deficiencies.

The outfield appears to be the strongest area with Agee anchored in center, flanked by Swoboda in right and Cleon Jones in left.

Jones, a Mobile, Ala. school-boy buddy of Agee's is expected to perk up after his 1967 slump to .246. Swoboda, a potentially dangerous home run hitter—and sometimes just as dangerous in the outfield—arrived last year with a .281 mark. Art Shamsky, ex-Cincinnati Red, and Amos Otis, another Mobile lad, are among the army battling for the spare jobs.

Harrelson, at 145 pounds, convinced the Mets he could hit enough (.254) to hold down a regular shortstop job with his sparkling fielding last season.

Ed Kranepool, 23, an $85,000 bonus baby in the days when Hodges was with the Mets, still has not lived up to his early promise at first base.

Second and third are up for grabs. Al Weis, a handyman who came with Agee in the deal with the White Sox, could wind up at second. Rookies Dave Boswell, Bob Heise and Kevin Collins are trying to impress the boss. Dick Kenworthy, bought conditionally from the White Sox, is getting a shot at third base. Others are veteran Jerry Buchek or Ed Charles, who is not even on the roster.

J. C. Martin, also obtained from the White Sox looks like the new No. 1 catcher. He bats left-handed and probably will platoon with Jerry Grote.

Except for Seaver, the 1967

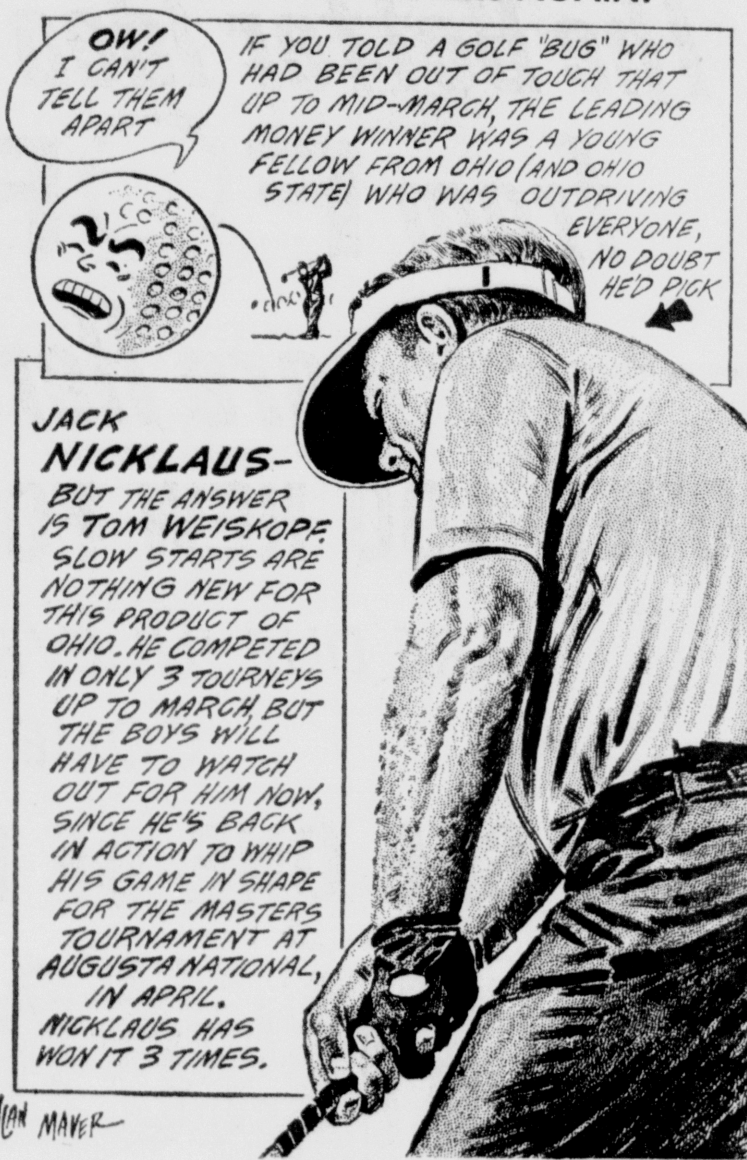

NL Rookie of the Year with his impressive 16-13 record, the pitching staff is wide open. The veteran Cardwell, with a history of arm trouble, and lefty Al Jackson, back from the Cards, have the most experience.

Jerry Koosman and Nolan Ryan, the strikeout phenom of the minors who hurt his elbow last summer, look like the best of the young crop.

Hal Reniff, the ex-New York Yankee, is getting a look. So is Bob Hendley, still recuperating from elbow surgery.

Tug McGraw, Cal Koonce and Dan Frisella have a chance. The bullpen will be manned primarily by Ron Taylor and Don Shaw and possibly Ron Paul.

Affable Tom Shaw Leads At Pensacola

PENSACOLA, Fla. (AP) — Affable Tom Shaw has a ready explanation for the jubilant antics on the golf course that make him a likeable rarity among the pro tour's deadpan chargers.

"I'm happy just to be alive," said Shaw, who was in a jarring freeway crash in California two years ago and suffered a broken back.

The 26-year-old teaching pro at a course in Golf, Ill., also was elated over his opening round in the Pensacola Open Tournament, a 63 which gave him a two-stroke lead going into today's renewal of the battle for the $16,000 winner's check.

Shaw started off with three straight birdies, chipped in from 20 feet for another, and bettered par on nine holes on the flat, 66,380 yard course which has a par of 72.

Shaw's score matched the best round turned in on the tour this year, but it was two strokes off the Pensacola Open record set by defending champion Gay Brewer with a 61 a year ago.

Brewer was tied for 75th as 92 players broke par. Dave Stockton, who has widened his stance "because I was falling off balance," and chunky Bob Murphy turned in 65s to share the runner-up slot behind Shaw.

Deadlocked at 66 were Ray Botts, Bobby Cole, Tony Jacklin, DeWitt Weaver, Rod Funseth, Dave Marr and George Archer, Gary Player opened with a 67, and Doug Sanders still not making his usual spring surge—shot a 71.

Cincinnati Reds Blanked by Tigers, 3-0

LAKELAND, Fla. (AP)—The Cincinnati Reds, riding a seven-game winning streak until last Monday, now are on the other end of the scoring seesaw — they've lost their last three exhibition games.

The latest defeat, 3-0, came here Thursday at the hands of the Detroit Tigers.

Cincinnati was held to three hits, largely by winner Earl Wilson who gave up two in six innings. Wilson retired the first 10 Reds to face him.

The Tigers scored the only run they needed in the fifth when Roy Oyster and Wilson singled and Tom Matchick hit a sacrifice fly.

Norm Cash drove in a pair of insurance runs with an eighth-inning single.

The loss was chalked against Milt Pappas, one of three Reds pitchers.

The Killer murdered Minnesota's exhibition baseball losing streak.

Harmon "Killer" Killebrew took personal charge of ending the seven-game string of losses Thursday when he hammered two home runs and led Minnesota to a 7-6 victory over the Los Angeles Dodgers.

Killebrew's second shot broke a 6-6 tie in the bottom of the eighth inning as the Twins won their third game in 12 spring starts, Los Angeles is 5-7.

In other games, St. Louis blanked Pittsburgh 4-0, Atlanta shut out Philadelphia 7-0, Detroit stopped Cincinnati 3-0, Oakland edged the Chicago White Sox 5-4 and Washington nipped the New York Mets 2-1.

Also Houston hammered Boston 11-1, the New York Yankees edged the Mexico City Tigers 5-4, San Francisco battered Cleveland 14-3 and the Chicago Cubs blanked California 1-0.

Killebrew, who tied Carl Yastrzemski for the American League lead in homers last year with 44, cracked a three-run homer in the first inning and then won it with his second shot in the eighth.

Tony Oliva had an inside-the-park homer for the Twins and Zoilo Versalles, traded by Minnesota to Los Angeles during the winter, homered for the Dodgers.

Orlando Cepeda, the National for the Cardinals. The big first baseman hammered a home run and a double against Pittsburgh 4-0 on 12 hits in 30 at bats.

Jim Bunning took most of the punishment as the Cards won their 10th game in 12 spring starts. Cepeda in his last six at bats has had a single, two doubles and two homers.

The Washington Senators maintained a perfect record against National League opponents, making the Mets their fifth straight victims. Sam Bowens homered for Washington and Ron Swoboda connected for New York.

Atlanta's Dick Kelley threw five perfect innings as the Braves battered Philadelphia. Two of the three Phillie hits came in the ninth inning against reliever Clay Carroll. Sonny Jackson drove in three runs with a pair of singles for the Braves.

Andy Kosco cracked a three-run homer that brought New York from behind in the eighth inning and propelled the Yankees to their victory over the Mexico City Tigers.

The Cubs pushed across an unearned run in the fifth inning and shutout pitching by Rich Nye and Gary Ross protected it for the victory over California. Nye allowed just four hits in six innings and Ross gave two in the final three innings.

Juan Marichal worked seven innings and contributed a double to an eight-run San Francisco rally in the fourth inning as the Giants belted the Indians. Marichal allowed six hits—one a homer by Lee Maye.

Jim Wynn, Hector Torres, and Ivan Murrell cracked home runs leading a 16-hit Houston attack that carried the Astros past Boston. It was Houston's sixth straight victory.

Danny Cater tagged two home runs and Sal Bando hit his seventh of the spring as Oakland dropped the White Sox. Ramon Webster drove in the Athletics' tying run in the seventh and the winner in the ninth.

Top Basketball Action Is Slated In NCAA and NIT

Can Houston and Elvin Hayes do it again? Can the unbeaten Cougars and the Big E once more defeat UCLA and Lew Alcindor?

The pros and cons will be settled tonight in the epic rematch of the country's top two college basketball teams at the Sports Arena in Los Angeles.

The top-ranked Cougars, with a 32-game winning streak, battle the second-ranked UCLA, beaten only by Houston, in the semifinals of the NCAA tournament.

The winner is expected to go on and win the national collegiate championship Saturday night against either North Carolina or Ohio State.

North Carolina and Ohio State are paired in the first game of the NCAA semifinal doubleheader starting at 10 p.m., EST. The eagerly awaited Houston-UCLA game is scheduled for midnight.

Kansas and Dayton started off the climactic final weekend of the collegiate season by winning the semifinals of the National Invitation Tourney in New York Thursday night.

Dayton made it 13 in a row by erasing a nine-point deficit to beat Notre Dame 76-74 in overtime. Don May's 32 points gained the Flyers a 68-68 regulation tie and Bob Hooper's two free throws with 15 seconds left in the OT provided the winning margin.

Kansas whipped St. Peter's 58-46 on the slick ball handling and floor generalship of Jo Jo White. The Jayhawks completely stopped the Peacocks' vaunted fast break which had overwhelmed Duke 100-71 on Monday.

Kansas and Dayton play in the NIT final Saturday afternoon at 2 p.m., EST. Notre Dame and St. Peter's meet in a consolation for third place at noon.

Although Houston snapped UCLA's 47-game winning streak Jan. 20 in the Astrodome at Houston 71-69, the Bruins are favored this time. Hayes, who got 39 points in the Astrodome, is expected to turn in another great performance, but UCLA's over-all team balance is regarded as the difference. In addition Alcindor has recovered from the eye trouble which hampered him in January.

As Guy Lewis, Houston coach, put it: "We have to beat UCLA to win the national championship and that's the way it should be."

North Carolina, fourth-ranked in the final Associated Press poll of the season, is favored over unranked Ohio State in the virtually overlooked other NCAA semifinal.

school coach of the year recently.

In 12 years at Linden, the teams posted a won-lost record of 202-56. Thirty-two of those losses came during his first three years. His last nine teams finished 1-2 in the tough Columbus City League.

Chickerella told the Westfall basketball players, cheerleaders and fans that athletics is a way of life. "Sports is the only place where true Democracy is practiced," the new Cap mentor said. "An athlete is judged on his ability alone."

HE pointed out that sports teaches the most fundamental principal of life — to win. An athlete learns responsibility to himself and to other members of the team.

He emphasized that scholarship and athletics must go hand in hand. Chickerella told the gathering that his Linden team practiced twice a day during the first two weeks of the season, from 7 to 8 a. m. before school started and again after school.

Following his speech, the Westfall cheerleading and basketball squads were introduced. Special awards handed out by varsity coach Paul Hoskins included the Mustang Award to Andy Hamman, a trophy to Denney Fletcher for setting a school rebounding record, and a trophy to Charles Palmer for being named to the first team All-District.

Palmer also received the Bob Bowsher award presented by The Herald to the outstanding basketball player in Pickaway County and the top offensive award presented by the local radio station.

Tony Lightle received the top defensive award.

Dick Wellington served as toastmaster for the banquet, which is sponsored by the Westfall Booster Club.

Chamberlain Sets 3 NBA Records

NEW YORK (AP) — Philadelphia's Wilt Chamberlain established three records and Detroit's Dave Bing became the league's scoring leader, National Basketball Association figures disclosed today.

The 7-foot-1 Chamberlain became the first center ever to win play-making honors with 702 assists, most ever by a pivot man. He also extended his string of most consecutive games with no disqualification on personal fouls to 706 and ran his all-time career scoring total to 25,434 points.

The 6-3 Bing, in his second season in the NBA, took scoring honors with 2,142 points. Cincinnati's Oscar Robertson had the best average per game, 29.2 points to Bing's 27.1, but missed 17 games with injuries and finished sixth in the over-all scoring race.

A four-panel comic strip featuring Mary Richards and her friends. In the first panel, Mary says, "— BUT OUR REFRIGERATOR IS EMPTY!" while looking at a kitchen counter. The second panel shows two women sitting on the floor, one saying, "WHAT HAPPENED TO ALL THE FOOD THAT WAS IN THERE??" and the other replying, "WINGEY AND THE GUYS ATE IT. WHY??" The third panel shows a woman lying down, saying, "BUT THAT WASN'T OURS! IT BELONGED TO MRS. JOHNSON, NEXT DOOR!!" The fourth panel shows two women looking shocked; one exclaims, "THEIR FRIDGE WENT OFF, SO SHE BROUGHT HER DINNERS OVER HERE!"

Church of God To Honor Pastor

REV. R. J. VARNELL

Reverend R. J. Varnell, pastor of the local Church of God, will be honored by his congregation on March 24. The day has been designated Pastor Appreciation Sunday.

The special event is to give recognition to Rev. Varnell for his outstanding contribution to the community as a pastor and leader.

The minister came to Circleville in 1958. Since that time he has earned the respect of the community as a result of his involvement in local affairs.

The Sunday School will present the pastor with a special plaque at the conclusion of the 9:45 a. m. Sunday School hour.

Friends of Rev. Varnell are invited to attend the observance.

LIMA, Ohio (AP)—The Superior Coach Corp. here has announced receipt of an order to build 150 air-conditioned ambulances on Pontiac chassis for military and Department of Defense use. The order involves slightly more than $1 million, the company said.

WSD Selects Top Speller

Chuck Steinhauer, an eighth grader at Jackson School, was named the champion speller for Westfall School District in a recent contest.

Students from grades six, seven and eight were eligible to compete. Chuck is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Steinhauer, Route 3.

Names as alternate was Virginia Ann Hamric also an eighth grader at Jackson School. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Hamric of Williamsport.

The contest is a part of the National Spelling Bee. Chuck will now compete in a county contest to select a county champion.

Others taking the final test at Westfall were Phil Karn, Mark Hosler, Jill Long, Steve Cochran and Kay Hooks.

Her apartment was badly charred, but no damage estimate was available. Cause of the fire, which started in the kitchen, was not determined.

Nothing Changed By Rocky Move

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—New York Gov. Nelson Rockefeller's decision not to seek the Republican presidential nomination has not changed anything in Ohio, State Republican Chairman John S. Andrews said Thursday.

"As far as the Ohio delegation is concerned the original course of action by the Republican State Committee when it invited Gov. (James A.) Rhodes to be the favorite son was to recommend that the delegation go to the national convention uncommitted. Our position in this regard is unchanged," Andrews said.

Protestant Unification Faces Obstacle

By GEORGE W. CORNELL
AP Religion Writer

NEW YORK (AP)—Protestantism's big push for unification goes into a critical stretch this weekend to see if it can get over a tough operational obstacle.

After having agreed on basic principles of doctrine and worship, representatives of 10 major denominations face a problem which so far has stymied them—how to mesh their different organizational systems.

That structural hurdle will be the main issue before the seventh annual meeting of the Consultation on Church Union, starting Sunday in Dayton, Ohio.

It comes at a time when widespread activities in the life of the churches "testify to a new and prevalent ecumenical mood," says a study report distributed to participants.

Paradoxically, the report notes, the developments show "a decreasing emphasis on structures" upholding particular denominational values—the very concern that has stalled the reunion talks.

Rather, the spontaneous, emerging emphasis has been on methods for accomplishing the common Christian task together through "structures for an ecumenical mission," the report says, adding: "Rightly guided, the developments may be an important stage on the way to achievement of structural unity."

With the summary in hand of how such operations already are being linked up in many areas and situations, the denominational representatives will make another try at means for fusing their national organizational mechanisms.

One of the chief conflicts so far has been over the power of bishops. The Methodist Church gives them full authority to appoint and remove pastors, while the other denominations give varying prerogatives in the

Family Planning Elects Officers

The Pickaway County Family Planning Assn. met recently to elect officers for the present year.

The following persons were elected:

Chairman, Dennis Blecha; Vice chairman, Frank E. Hoff; man; secretary, Mrs. Frank Hoffman; treasurer, P. J. Ranck; legal adviser, Richard Penn; and medical adviser, Dr. William A. Myers.

Board members of the association are Mrs. Richard Penn, Mrs. Robert Peet, Dr. Robert Peet, Ray Carroll, M. D., Mrs. Ray Carroll, Mrs. Dennis Blecha, Mrs. P. J. Ranck, Mrs. William A. Myers, Mrs. Jasper Hedges, Jasper Hedges, M. D., Mrs. David Allardice and Rev. David Allardice.

matter to congregations and the pastors

The question has stirred debate among Methodists themselves. One of that church's leading theologians, the Rev. Dr. Albert C. Outler of Dallas, says the "absolute appointive power" of bishops is undermining clergy morale, in addition to holding up reunion efforts.

Urging a change in the system to provide "substantial recognition of the rights" of congregations and pastors, he says such a modification is "certain to come with any really serious achievement in Christian unity."

On the other hand, Methodist Bishop Nolan E. Harmon, of Atlanta, calls the system the "lifeblood of our organization," and says it presents an insurmountable barrier to the union talks. He says the consultation will come to nothing.

The 10 denominations involved have about 25½ million members. Besides the Methodist Church, they are: The Episcopal Church, the United Presbyterian Church, in the U.S.A., the United Church of Christ, the Christian (Disciples of Christ) Churches, the Evangelical United Brethren Church, the Presbyterian Church in the U.S., and three predominantly Negro bodies—the African Methodist Episcopal Church, the African Methodist Episcopal Zion Church, and the Christian Methodist Episcopal Church.

At the four-day Dayton meeting, special commissions will bring in their findings from studies made during the past year on procedures for merging memberships and ministers, and for setting up a provisional joint council.

Under tentative guidelines laid down earlier, the churches would work together increasingly through a provisional council for about 10 years as an interim stage to full merger.

To get this process of "growing together" started, participating denominations for several years have been encouraging pulp exchanges of pastors on special occasions, and now they're urging "congregation exchanges."

Officials said selected delegations from thousands of congregations are expected to trade places of worship en masse on "Consultation Visitation Sunday" April 28.

In addition to representatives of the 10 denominations, official observer-consultants from more than 20 other religious bodies, including the Roman Catholic and Orthodox churches, are expected at the Dayton sessions.
